Off To Santos For Final Leg

The greatest opportunity in club history awaits Sounders FC on Wednesday night in Torreon, Mexico as the Rave Green look to settle the series with Santos Laguna. Advancement to the semifinals of the CONCACAF Champions League is at stake, and Seattle took its first step toward securing a spot last week, taking a notable 2-1 aggregate advantage over Santos in the first leg.

The second and deciding leg of the aggregate-goal series kicks off at 5 p.m. PT on Wednesday, March 14 at Santos' home stadium, Territorio Santos Modelo. Fox Soccer will broadcast the match nationally.

The busy week continues as Sounders FC returns home to open its fourth season in Major League Soccer on Saturday, March 17 against Toronto FC. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. PT on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

Just 90 minutes of soccer on Wednesday night will bring the long awaited result. Prior to this year, only one MLS club has advanced to the semifinals of the Champions League. Seattle is looking to become the second this year to reach the semifinals where they would meet fellow MLS side LA Galaxy or Toronto FC.

In front of a record crowd at CenturyLink Field, David Estrada struck early as he headed in the opening goal just 12 minutes into the first leg—his first for Sounders FC. Brad Evans then regained the lead just minutes after Santos equalized in the second half and Seattle held on for the 2-1 score line.

The winner of the aggregate goal series will be determined at the end of regulation on Wednesday, unless the score is exactly the reverse of the first leg, in which case the teams will play an overtime period followed by penalty shootout, if necessary.

Sounders FC sits just five games away from capturing the Champions League trophy, and punching their ticket to the FIFA Club World Cup in Japan.

There's no break for Sounders FC as they return to Seattle for three consecutive home matches to open the 2012 MLS season, rounding out the club's five matches in the first month of play.

Tickets to home MLS matches are available through www.SoundersFC.com, all Ticketmaster Outlets, CenturyLink Field Box Office or by calling 877-MLS-GOAL.

The Boys Are Back

The core of leaders returns to Sounders FC for the 2012 season. Striker Fredy Montero is joined in the attack by 2011 MLS Newcomer of the Year Mauro Rosales, Alvaro Fernandez and, eventually, winger Steve Zakuani. The backline is shored up by Jeff Parke and Jhon Kennedy Hurtado in the middle with Leo Gonzalez returning to the left. The ever-active central midfield of Osvaldo Alonso and Brad Evans rounds out the group of returning starters.

A group of newcomers have also joined the club, most notably the six-foot-five Austrian goalkeeper Michael Gspurning, Swedish right back Adam Johansson and Danish midfielder Christian Sivebaek. The Rave Green also added a goalscorer in U.S. international Eddie Johnson. And, as in years past, Seattle also has depth. The emergence of David Estrada has created more competition for minutes at forward, particularly with teammates Sammy Ochoa and Babayele Sodade.

Big Game David: Versatile Forward Nets First Goal

The scene couldn't have been set better for David Estrada's first goal. It was his first start in front of the Sounders FC faithful at CenturyLink Field. The opponent was Mexican side Santos Laguna, a club that the Mexican-born Estrada watched growing up. And it came just 12 minutes into one of the most important matches in club history.

The third-year forward out of UCLA has shown his versatility on the pitch, converting from forward to midfielder at UCLA and testing out right back last year in Seattle. Estrada was given the opportunity to return to his most comfortable position up top this preseason, scoring three goals with two assists in seven games. The last time he played forward was his first year at UCLA when he set a UCLA freshman record with 12 goals and was named Soccer America's Freshman of the Year.

More Montero Magic: Fredy Starting Hot

Perhaps as impressive as David Estrada's strong header was the curling ball from Fredy Montero that led Estrada to the open space. With the assist, Montero now has three goals and three assists in the 2011-12 CONCACAF Champions League, including three goals and one assist in his last five CCL games.

Montero looks to be in fine form as he begins the 2012 campaign. The Colombian striker scored five goals in his final three preseason matches, including one against the Columbus Crew and braces against Atlante FC and Jaguares de Chiapas. Sounders FC supporters hope Montero picks up where he left off last season when he set a club record with 33 points in MLS play.

He finished the year with 18 goals and 11 assists in all competitions and was also named U.S. Open Cup Player of the Tournament.

March Madness: Busy Month Ahead for Sounders FC

The Rave Green will play at least five contests in March with four at home; the lone road match comes on March 14 in Torreon, Mexico. A potential sixth game date could be added should Seattle advance to the CCL semifinals.

Seattle will play teams from three different countries with Mexico's Santos Laguna, Canada's Toronto FC and United States' Houston Dynamo and San Jose Earthquakes. Three of the five matches in March are on national TV, and the team plays on three different days of the week with two games on Wednesdays, two on Saturdays and one on Friday.

Friendly Fire: Meet the Opposition

Santos Laguna returned home from Seattle to regain the top spot in the Mexican Clausura with a 3-1 win over Puebla. Herculez Gomez, the goal scorer in Seattle, netted a brace as Santos came-from-behind to seal the victory. With the win, Santos remains unbeaten (4-0-2) at home this season in the Mexican Primera Division. Santos has extended its strong home form to Champions League play as they have won all four home CCL games this year, outscoring opponents 14-3. In the 2010-11 Champions League tournament, Santos won four out of five contests, scoring five or more goals on three occasions.

Santos scored the most goals of any team in the group stage with 16 tallies, five more than the nearest competitor. Santos faced the Colorado Rapids in the group stage and beat their American opposition 6-1 over the two legs. Their lone loss came to fellow quarterfinalist Metapan, but Santos avenged the loss with a 6-0 win in the rematch.

Golden Opportunity: Rave Green Play for Greatness

A special opportunity awaits the winner of the CONCACAF Champions League as a berth to the FIFA Club World Cup is on the line. Sounders FC is one of eight remaining teams from the CONCACAF region, meaning just five games separates the club from winning the tournament and advancing to the Club World Cup, where world's top soccer club is crowned. The Club World Cup consists of the six continental champions plus the host nation winner, and Seattle is vying to represent North America, Central America and the Caribbean at this year's tournament in Japan.

No MLS club has won the Champions League tournament. The previous competition, the Champions Cup, was twice won by MLS sides; the last by Seattle skipper Sigi Schmid with the LA Galaxy in 2000. Real Salt Lake reached the final last year but lost to Monterrey on aggregate, 3-2.

Play by the Rules: About CCL

The quarterfinal round is structured in a two-leg, aggregate goal series. The second leg will be played at the higher seed's home stadium. The winner of the series is determined by most total goals over the two matches. If the score is tied at the end of regulation of the second leg, away goals will be used as the tie breaker. Therefore, unless the score of the second leg is exactly the reverse of the first leg, a winner will be named in regulation. If, considering away goals, the score is still tied the teams will play an overtime period followed by penalty shootout, if necessary.

Cautionary cards carry over for the entirety of the tournament, thus players face suspension following their second yellow card caution. Jhon Kennedy Hurtado, Leo Gonzalez, and David Estrada were all issued yellow cards in the opening leg last Wednesday against Santos Laguna.

Tourney Time: Field Full of Stiff Competition

Seattle is facing one of the strongest teams in the tournament in Mexico's Santos Laguna. Yet the field is full of strong opposition, including four Mexican Primera Division sides and three MLS Clubs. MLS Cup-winners LA Galaxy is the higher seed in their matchup with Toronto FC. The other quarterfinal matchups include last year's winners Monterrey versus current Mexican Primera Division leaders Morelia and Pumas versus the only club from outside MLS and Mexico, El Salvador's Metapan. The first leg of the semifinals will be on March 27 with the second leg on April 3. The finals are scheduled for April 17 and April 24.

The original 24 berths in the 2011-12 Champions League field were divided among the three sub-regions of the confederation, with 12 reserved for Central America, nine for North America, and three for the Caribbean. The United States and Mexico received four berths each.

Rave Green on the Road

Seattle is unbeaten in its last three Champions League away matches, a stretch that includes a historic 1-0 win at Monterrey, a 2-1 win at Costa Rica's Herediano, and a 2-2 draw at Guatemala's Comunicaciones, clinching advancement to the quarters for Seattle.

Despite being one of the most traveled clubs in MLS, Sounders FC finished the 2011 season as the league's top road team in impressive fashion. Seattle's nine road wins were two more than any other MLS club and its three road losses were a league low, two fewer than their opponents. Sounders FC also scored the most away goals last year (24) and allowed the least (17).

Road to Glory: How Seattle, Santos Reached Quarters

Both Sounders FC and Santos Laguna began their title chase in the preliminary round of the CONCACAF Champions League. Seattle downed Panama's San Francisco FC, 2-1 on aggregate, while Santos flew past Olimpia of Honduras, 5-2. In the group stage, Seattle finished second in Group D behind the reigning champions Monterrey, who Sounders FC beat 1-nil in Mexico. And Santos finished atop Group B with 13 points, the most of any team in the group stage this year.

Three Sounders FC players have scored multiple goals in this year's tournament, including Fredy Montero (three), Osvaldo Alonso (two) and Alvaro Fernandez (two).

Eddie Johnson Makes Debut

Eddie Johnson made his Sounders debut in last Wednesday's match, playing 12 minutes after coming in for Alvaro Fernandez in the 78th minute. He nearly scored just two minutes after entering when his headed attempt from a Mauro Rosales cross went wide.

If the new Sounders striker does make his first start on Wednesday, he expects to feel at home on the pitch just as he does in the locker room with Ezra Hendrickson (teammate at Dallas), Chris Henderson (assistant coach at Kansas City), Dave Tenney (fitness coach at Kansas City) and Patrick Ianni (teammate on U.S. U-20 National Team).

Fernandez, Rosales Receive Green Cards

Midfielders Alvaro Fernandez and Mauro Rosales received their U.S. Green Cards, granting them permanent resident status in the United States, effective immediately.

As residents, Fernandez (Uruguay) and Rosales (Argentina) no longer occupy an International Player slot on Seattle's roster.

Rave Green Greetings

The roster continues to take shape as Seattle signed two players Tuesday in midfielders Alex Caskey and Andy Rose. There are now 11 new players on Sounders FC since last season.

Caskey, 23, was selected by Seattle in the third round (47th overall) of the 2011 MLS SuperDraft. He played for Charleston during the 2011 season where he scored one goal with one assist in 15 starts. Caskey was a three-time All-Southern Conference first team and two-time NSCAA All-South Region second team selection at Davidson, where he did not miss a match during his four-year career.

Rose, 22, was selected by Seattle in the 2012 MLS Supplemental Draft on January 17 following a trade with Real Salt Lake. The English midfielder was twice named All-Pac-12 First Team and team captain at UCLA.

Super Cyan Style: Debut of New Third Kit

Last Wednesday night's match with Santos Laguna marked the first appearance of Sounders FC in their bright blue third kit known as Super Cyan. For the last two seasons the Electricity third kit has been donned for Open Cup and international matches, and for MLS play on occasion. Some of the biggest moments in club history have occurred in the third kit, including the 2010 and 2011 U.S. Open Cup title runs and the comeback victory at Portland last July.

Recap: Sounders FC 2 vs. Santos Laguna 1

Goal scorers David Estrada and Brad Evans led the way as Seattle Sounders FC took a 2-1 advantage over Santos Laguna after the first leg of the CONCACAF Champions League quarterfinals on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

The match drew 23,433, a Sounders FC record for a home CONCACAF Champions League match. The previous high was 22,513 on August 25, 2010, against Monterrey.

Estrada scored his first competitive goal for Sounders FC and Evans' second-half tally regained the lead shortly after Santos equalized.

Seattle struck early with a 12th minute goal from Estrada. Fredy Montero served a looping cross from 20-yards out that bent around the defense and found a streaking Estrada at the back post. Estrada rose and hammered a header past keeper Oswaldo Sanchez.

Montero leads Seattle with three goals and three assists in the 2011-12 Champions League tournament.

After Santos equalized in the 61st minute, Sounders FC regained the lead just two minutes later when Evans scored in the 63rd minute. Mauro Rosales swung a 25-yard free kick into the box from the left side. A surging Evans out-jumped his defender and headed the ball into the top of the net.

Several Sounders FC players made their competitive debuts, including Gspurning, defenders Adam Johansson and Marc Burch, and forward Eddie Johnson.

Gspurning made four saves, most notable a diving effort in the 19th minute that stopped a strong shot from Gomez.

Johnson entered in the 78th minute and nearly scored in the 80th but his headed attempt from a Rosales cross sailed wide of the post.

Sounders FC donned their new third kit, Super Cyan, earning their first victory in the new strip.Seven yellow cards were issued in the match, including cautions to Seattle's Jhon Kennedy Hurtado, Leo Gonzalez and David Estrada.

Attendance Records Broken

Seattle set an MLS record for attendance with an average of 30,897 in 2009, only to surpass that mark in 2010 with an average of 36,173 and again in 2011 with an average of 38,498. The previous mark of 28,916 was set by the L.A. Galaxy in 1996. Sounders FC is the first franchise in MLS history to have 28,000 or more fans at 15 games, with each regular season match on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field a sell-out. The top regular season crowd was 64,140 in a 2-1 win over San Jose.

The top 10 home season attendance averages are as follows:
2011 Seattle Sounders FC - 38,498
2010 Seattle Sounders FC - 36,173
2009 Seattle Sounders FC - 30,897
1996 Los Angeles Galaxy - 28,916

Coaches Corner

Head Coach Sigi Schmid

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a two-time Coach of the Year. In the 2011 season he guided the Sounders FC to the playoffs for the third consecutive year, becoming the first team in league history to reach the playoffs in its first three seasons.

The Sounders FC also became the first team in 42 years to win three straight Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championships when they beat Chicago, 2-0, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title and Columbus at home, 2-1, to win the 2010 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew, to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year honors.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (157). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 157-110-83. His combined postseason win total (19) is the second-highest in MLS history. Schmid (350) has surpassed Bob Bradley's MLS record of 272 career games coached.

Schmid is the only coach in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. At UCLA Schmid claimed three more national titles in 1985, '90 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame.
