CHICAGO FIRE vs SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC

TOYOTA PARK, Bridgeview, III.

April 28, 2012 (WEEK 8, MLS Game #70)

7:30 p.m. CT (NBC5.2; KONG)

It's a rematch of last year's U.S. Open Cup Final when the Chicago Fire play host to Seattle Sounders FC on Saturday evening at Toyota Park. Sounders FC return to action after a weekend off, their last match a 1-0 home win against the Colorado Rapids. The Fire are coming off a win on the road, defeating Toronto FC 3-2. Seattle won last year's Open Cup title, its third on the trot, a 2-0 win at CenturyLink Field.

CHICAGO FIRE

The Chicago Fire continued their winning ways in Toronto, knocking off Toronto FC 3-2 on Saturday afternoon at BMO Field. The Fire are in a tie for fourth place in the Eastern Conference with 8 points from 5 games.

LAST MATCH

- The Fire took the lead just 25 seconds in. Patrick Nyarko picked the pocket of TFC sweeper Torsten Frings just outside his own area, and Dominic Oduro streaked onto the loose ball, took a touch and slotted under TFC goalkeeper Milos Kocic.
- But TFC took the lead in short fashion by halftime on a pair of goals from winger Reggie Lambe. In the 36th minute, Lambe gathered a punched clearance from a corner kick, made space and ripped a right-footed rocket from outside the box into the top left corner.
- Four minutes later Lambe was there again. Ryan Johnson made a darting run down the left side and crossed for Matt Stinson, who could only deflect the ball to the back post where Lambe smashed it in for Toronto's first lead of the season.
- The lead lasted barely a minute. The Fire won a set piece in the 41st minute, and Argentinean maestro Sebastian Grazzini floated a perfect ball to the back post for Gonzao Segares to flick past a sprawling Kocic.
- The visitors went back in front in the 58th minute. Receiving the ball in midfield, Oduro turned provider, slipping a ball through perfectly for Nyarko to run onto. The Ghanaian playmaker took a touch around the on-rushing Kocic and finished into the open net for the eventual winner.

- Fire head coach Frank Klopas made no changes to the team that played to a 1-1 draw with the Houston Dynamo at Toyota Park.
- CHICAGO FIRE (4-3-1-2): Sean Johnson Dan Gargan, Arne Friedrich, Jalil Anibaba, Gonzalo Segares Logan Pause, Pavel Pardo, Marco Pappa (Federico Puppo 65) Sebastian Grazzini (Orr Barouch 79) Patrick Nyarko, Dominic Oduro (Daniel Paladini 84).

TEAM NEWS

- Dominic Oduro's goal after 25 seconds vs. Toronto FC was the fastest in Fire history, two seconds quicker than a goal scored by Jamar Beasley on July 4, 2001 in a 7-0 Chicago win vs. Kansas City. It's tied for the fifth-quickest goal in MLS history, and the second first-minute goal in MLS this season.
- "I'm glad to make history and that my name is now in history, but at the end of the day I'm glad that we were able to get an early goal, get settled into the game," Oduro said.
- Oduro later played provider with his first assist of the season, setting up Patrick Nyarko's first goal in 2012.
- "It feels good. It shows that we can be dynamic together," Nyarko said. "Either one of us can play that pass, we can use our pace to get behind defenders. It's a great team win today, we really fought hard. It was a nervy end but everyone worked hard to get this one."
- The Fire had hoped to include newly-returned striker Chris Rolfe in the team for the Toronto match, but he suffered an ankle injury in the days leading up to the match and was not available.
- "We were just doing a finishing drill and the ball came across the goal," Rolfe said. "My toe got stuck in the turf and my body kept going forward and I just rolled over the top of it."
- While the two goals allowed matched a season-high, the Fire were able to come away with the full three points for a second time this season.
- "I think it was an immense amount of concentration," goalkeeper Sean Johnson said. "We battled and we battled we got to 13 minutes left I turned to Jalil [Anibaba] and told him that we are just going to have to weather the storm and to fight through this battle. It's not going to be pretty, they are going to push numbers forward and we will have to deal with the numbers."
- For Costa Rican international fullback Gonzalo Segares, his goal was his first in nearly exactly three years. His last strike in MLS had come April 25, 2009, in a 2-2 draw with Columbus.
- "You never know when those opportunities are going to arise. They still bother me but as a defender you don't visualize yourself in those positions I definitely would like to have some chances back," Segares said. "On this one, I'd just say I'm glad I didn't hit the 'keeper or put it out of bounds."

SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC

Seattle Sounders FC return to action following a week off, their last match a 1-0 home win against the Colorado Rapids at CenturyLink Field. Sounders FC are in a tie for fourth place in the Western Conference with 10 points from 5 games. LAST MATCH

- The game's lone game came in the 63rd minute, when Zach Scott sent a glancing header off a Alex Caskey corner kick from the left inside the back post.
- Sounders FC goalkeeper Michael Gspurning was called upon to make just one save in recording a second consecutive shutout.
- Sounders FC head coach Sigi Schmid made two changes to the team that reached a scoreless draw with D.C.
 United at RFK Stadium. Alex Caskey and Eddie Johnson came into the team, in place of Roger Levesque and Alvaro Fernandez.
- SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC (4-4-2): Michael Gspurning Zach Scott, Jeff Parke, Patrick lanni, Leo Gonzalez David Estrada, Brad Evans, Osvaldo Alonso, Alex Caskey (Marc Burch 75) Fredy Montero (Roger Levesque 91+), Eddie Johnson (Sammy Ochoa 66).

TEAM NEWS

- Making his first MLS start, Alex Caskey set up the lone goal vs. Colorado with his corner kick service.
- "It's a testament to the depth of our team that we have so many guys that can fill in at so many positions when they need to," Caskey said. "It's worked out well that we have a core group of guys that are in there, with Brad [Evans] and [Osvaldo Alonso] that are used to playing together and we can fill it in with guys who can come off the bench and start."
- Zach Scott scored his first goal in 29 career appearances. It was his fourth consecutive start in place of the injured Adam Johansson. "We work on it a lot, swinging in good balls and (Alex) Caskey put it right in my path. I didn't have to do much other than run in the right area and get the tiniest bit of deflection on it," Scott said.
- Eddie Johnson made his first league start since coming to Sounders FC. He had missed the first three league games of the year after coming on a substitute in both CONCACAF Champions League games.
- "For him, it's just a matter getting his timing [so] that he's able to train everyday... That helps his timing," Schmid said. "The best Eddie Johnson we're going to see is going to be around the middle of May. As long as he continues to train, his timing, his game intuition and fitness will come at that point."

- Said Johnson: "I knew from a fitness standpoint I couldn't go 90 minutes, but I felt good physically to get out there, work hard and cause trouble for their back four. As far as my return and my hip flexor holding up, I thought it was a good 65 minutes where it wasn't sore two or three days afterward."
- With Johnson coming in alongside Fredy Montero up top, David Estrada moved to a wide midfield spot.
 Estrada had started the first four games as a striker; his two career MLS starts prior to this season were as a wide midfielder and as a fullback, and he also saw extensive time as a central midfielder with the reserves.
- "It's the same attitude," Estrada said. "Any chance anyone on this team gets to get on the field is an opportunity. Throughout the season, everyone is going to get their opportunity. At some point, everyone is going to have to go to the bench, and I think everyone is just ready."
- Competition is coming Mauro Rosales played in the bye week training match vs. the University of Washington. "I feel good," Rosales said. "It was an intense 60 minutes. My knee is still recovering, but it was a good step to try against the other guys. They made me make some extra effort than when I'm training. That's OK."
- Midfielder Alvaro Fernández is still further away. "Flaco still has a little bit of an issue when he runs at high speeds, so he's probably a little bit further away," Schmid said. "We'll take it slower with him and we'll see on Saturday."
- The goal vs. Colorado ended a 306-minute goalless drought for Sounders FC the longest in MLS this season. "I'm worried because that's what I love, to play and score goals," striker Fredy Montero said. "But right now I'm more worried about the team. I'm happy because the team is winning games."
- Said Schmid of Montero, who does not have a goal or an assist: "He drew some fouls for us in dangerous situations that set up free kicks for us that allowed us to be dangerous, too. So overall, I think his impact on the game was a positive one and his role ends up being a little bit different, especially without Flaco [Fernandez] out there and without Mauro out there."

CHICAGO FIRE - SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC SERIES

Coming of a 3-2 away win last Saturday at Toronto FC, the Chicago Fire welcome the Seattle Sounders to Toyota Park Saturday night in a rematch of the 2011 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup final.

The Fire come into Saturday's match in search of their first-ever victory vs. Seattle, coming off a 2011 campaign in which they fell 2-1 at the Sounders on April 9 and drew 0-0 vs. Seattle in Frank Klopas' first game as interim head coach on June 4. Seattle defeated the Fire 2-0 at CenturyLink Field in the 2011 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup final on October 4.

QUICK KICKS vs. Seattle Sounders (3-1-1; 10pts. 6 GF, 2 GA)

- Since 2009, the Fire are 0-3-3 all-time against Seattle in MLS
- The Fire are 0-1-2 vs. Seattle at Toyota Park.
- After a week off, the Seattle Sounders return to MLS play after last defeating the Colorado Rapids 1-0 behind defender Zach Scott's 63rd minute strike
- The Chicago Fire return 12 of the 14 players that appeared in last year's U.S. Open Cup final while Seattle returns just eight of the 13 that helped clinch the club's third-straight tournament
- Seattle comes into the game having gone 0-1-1 in the club's two competitive away matches this season.

A LOOK AT THE FIRE

The Chicago Fire (2-1-2, 8pts.) enter their 15th season of MLS play after rebounding midseason to post a 9-9-16 record, which left the side three points outside of the playoffs in 2011. Locking up the likes of Pavel Pardo and Logan Pause this past offseason, the team returns the entirety of its starting eleven to Toyota Park in 2012, while adding Uruguayan striker Federico Puppo, Zimbabwean forward Kheli Dube and Colombian midfielder Rafael Robayo to support the Ghanaian tandem of Dominic Oduro and Patrick Nyarko. The team also reinforced their defensive corps in the offseason by adding German World Cup veteran Arne Friedrich as well as two young defenders via the MLS SuperDraft in center back Austin Berry and left back Hunter Jumper who will be expected to provide cover for the likes of Cory Gibbs, Jalil Anibaba, Gonzalo Segares and Dan Gargan in 2012.

FIRE TOPPLE TORONTO FC 3-2

The Chicago Fire (2-1-2; 8pts.) used Dominic Oduro's fastest goal in club history and tallies from Gonzalo Segares and Patrick Nyarko to upend Toronto FC (0-6-0; 0pts.) 3-2 at BMO Field Saturday afternoon in Toronto.

Just 25 seconds into the match the Fire found the back of the net care of Oduro's 3rd goal of the season. Nyarko applied pressure on Toronto FC defender Torsten Frings at the onset, knocking the ball to a wide-open Oduro who collected the ball and slotted his shot under TFC 'keeper Milos Kosic to the near post. Oduro's first minute strike ties New England's Imad Baba for the fifth-fastest goal in MLS history.

Toronto FC found its way back into the game in the 36th minute when TFC midfielder Reggie Lambe latched onto a partially cleared ball off of a corner kick before blasting a shot from 25-yards past Sean Johnson and into the top corner of the net to even the game at 1-1.

Lambe found the brace just four minutes later. Ryan Johnson got open on the left side of the penalty area and feigned a shot, bringing Johnson off his line. The ball rolled through the Fire area finding Lambe at the back post. The former Ipswich man knocked the ball into the empty net to give Toronto FC a 2-1 lead on 40 minutes.

The back-and-forth wild first half continued as the Fire equalized in the 41 st minute when Sebastian Grazzini sent a beautifully measured free kick to the back post where Gonzalo Segares evaded his mark and superbly flicked the ball over Kocic and into the net to tie things up at two apiece before halftime.

The Ghanaian strike duo of Oduro and Nyarko found the game winner in the 58th minute. Oduro played a ball into space, behind the TFC defense, finding Nyarko who rounded Kocic before calmly scoring his first goal of the season and giving the Fire the 3-2 lead.

The Fire endured a frantic final 15 minutes, bunkering in to keep TFC off the score sheet in the second interval. Johnson finished the match with six saves while helping to keep the Fire backline compact as a winless Toronto FC pushed for the equalizer. The win at BMO moves the Fire's record at TFC to 3-3-1.

NEVEN BEATEN SEATTLE

Though the Fire have failed to beat the Seattle Sounders since 2009, the matches between the two clubs have always been close affairs. Having gone 0-3-3 since Sounders FC joined the league in 2009, all three losses have had one goal be the difference. The outlier here of course is the 2011 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup final in which a 95th minute goal from Osvaldo Alonso pushed the Sounders to a 2-0 victory.

ODURO'S GOAL SCORING RECORDS

Coming off a match in which he scored the club's fastest goal 25 seconds in Saturday's 3-2 victory over Toronto, Dominic Oduro sits just one goal away from moving into the club's Top 15 all-time goal scorers. The feat is made more amazing when you consider the Ghanaian striker has been with the Fire for just over 13 months.

Currently sitting on 15 regular season goals with Chicago, Oduro will hope to tie Cuauhtemoc Blanco and Lubos Kubik Saturday vs. Seattle. The feat will be difficult though as the Fire's 2012 leading goal scorer has never hit the back of the net in five career matches vs. the Sounders.

SEGARES TALLIES AFTER LONG GOAL DROUGHT

Gonzalo Segares' 41 st minute equalizer in Saturday's 3-2 win over Toronto was timely for more than one reason. Coming just a minute after Reggie Lambe put TFC ahead 2-1, the goal provided the perfect hush to the BMO Field crowd but also took some weight off the Costa Rican left back. Known for his attacking prowess out of the back, Segares' last goal for the Fire came almost three years to the day, tallying an 88th minute equalizer in a 2-2 draw at Columbus on April 25, 2009. The drought lasted 51 matches but is nowhere near the longest in club history... See below...

DID YOU KNOW ...?

While this will be the third game Fire head coach Frank Klopas and Sounders boss Sigi Schmid coach against each other, the two go back a bit in American soccer lore. Schmid served as an assistant coach under Bora Milutinovic during the 1994 FIFA World Cup, in which Frank Klopas was part of the 22-man U.S. roster.

THE LAST TIME THESE TWO MET...

It's a sore memory for all Fire fans as the team's bid to tie the record of five Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup championships was stolen by Seattle in a rainy, 2-0 Sounders victory on October 4, 2011. Sounders striker Fredy Montero tucked away a rebound off Eric Friberg's header in the 78th minute before Osvaldo Alonso added an insurance goal deep into injury time to give the Sounders a third consecutive title on October 4, 2011 at Century Link Field...Twenty of the 27 players that took part in the match have returned to their respective clubs for 2012.

2011 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Fire began 2011 on a high note, drawing away at Dallas before taking a 3-2 Opening Day victory on March 26 vs. Sporting Kansas City. From there the team went on a nine match winless streak, resulting in head coach Carlos de los Cobos being relieved of his duties on May 31. With the move, Fire Technical Director Frank Klopas moved down from the Front Office to take over the coaching reins on an interim basis and led the team to its first win in 12 matches with a late, dramatic 1-0 victory on June 12 at Columbus.

Despite the victory, the Fire struggled in the league through much of the summer but found a way to navigate through the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup with a 1-0 victory over Rochester on June 28 and a 4-0 win over Red Bull New York on July 12 putting the team into the tournament semifinals for the first time since 2006.

The midseason acquisitions of Pavel Pardo, Sebastian Grazzini and Dan Gargan reinforced the Fire and helped the team begin a late summer run with matching 2-0 victories over Toronto FC (August 21) and the Colorado Rapids (August 28) before booking a spot in an MLS record sixth U.S. Open Cup final with a 2-1 semifinal victory over Richmond on August 30.

The team recovered from their early season struggles, in which they won only two of their first 20 matches, to end 2011 with the club's second best regular season record at 7-2-1 and just three points out of the MLS Cup playoffs.

MATCH PREVIEW

The break is over for Sounders FC as the Rave Green returns to action for the busiest stretch in club history with nine games in 32 days. The stretch begins this Saturday with a match against the Chicago Fire at Toyota Park in Bridgeview, III. Kickoff is slated for 5:30 p.m. PT.

Saturday's match will be televised live on KONG 6/16 with Ross Fletcher and Kasey Keller on the call, and can be heard on 97.3 KIRO FM. The match will also be broadcast live out of market on ROOT Sports. La Gran D 99.3 FM will carry the match live in Spanish.

Sounders FC (3-1-1, 10 points) is off to the best five-game start in club history and will look to extend its MLS-best six-game (5-0-1) regular season road unbeaten streak.

Despite playing the fewest games in MLS, Sounders FC sits fourth in the West and tied-sixth overall. The Chicago Fire (2-1-2, 8 points) are one of two other teams to have played just five matches and currently sit fourth in the Eastern Conference.

Seattle is unbeaten over its past two matches, and will look to extend its 248-minute shutout streak (second-longest active streak in MLS) and end April unbeaten for the second straight year. The match will be the second road contest of the season for Seattle, earning a draw at D.C. United in its first away game, and will also mark the 100th regular season game for Sounders FC.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

The most potent attack in MLS may garner most of the attention but the backbone of Seattle's success over the past three seasons has been its defense. The trend has continued this season as Seattle has earned three shutouts in its first five matches, allowing just two goals (Ryan Johnson's MLS Goal of the Week in week two and Chris Wondolowski's penalty kick in Seattle's third game). Sounders FC ranks second in MLS with a 0.40 goals against average. Last season, it took 12 games for Seattle to earn three shutouts.

2012 GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE
1.	Jimmy Nielsen	Sporting KC	0.20
2.	Michael Gspurning	Seattle	0.40
3.	Jon Busch	San Jose	0.71
	Dan Kennedy	Chivas USA	0.71
5	Joe Cannon	Vancouver	0.93

Three standout defensive players have helped Seattle remain one of the league's stingiest defenses. Goalkeeper Michael Gspurning, center back Patrick lanni and midfielder Osvaldo Alonso have played every minute this season. Gspurning is the only keeper to allow two or fewer goals, and he is tied-third with three shutouts. His 248-minute shutout streak is currently the second-longest in MLS (Zac McMath/Philadelphia Union - 334), and his saves percentage (86.7) is second among keepers. Seattle has allowed the fewest shots of any team in MLS, holding its opponents to just 47 total shots, 17 fewer than any other club.

Sounders FC Hit The Century Mark

In just three short years Sounders FC has cemented itself in the landscape of soccer in America, and this Saturday will mark another milestone. Kickoff in Chicago will be the 100th regular season MLS match for Sounders FC. The Rave Green have set the standard for MLS expansion clubs, becoming the first expansion side to qualify for the playoffs in its first three seasons as well as winning the U.S. Open Cup championship all three years. Seattle has amassed 168 points since 2009 (the second-most in MLS) and has scored 139 goals (third in MLS). The Sounders FC faithful have also set a new mark for success in MLS, setting the average attendance record each season with 54 consecutive sellouts.

On the Mend: Several Players Nearing Full Strength

Sounders FC hopes to have its full arsenal of weapons come Saturday as several players are nearing full strength. Mauro Rosales (knee sprain) and Adam Johansson (hamstring strain) both played in a training game on Saturday, and rookie defender Andrew Duran seems to be fully recovered from knee surgery. Midfielder Alvaro Fernandez has continued to recover from a hamstring strain and midfielder Steve Zakuani has been in full training.

Seattle has used a different lineup in all five contests this season, and head coach Sigi Schmid has used a league-high 19 different starters (tied with D.C. United). Last season, Seattle started 23 different players in MLS play and 31 players in all competitions. The only player who did not start a match last season was backup keeper Josh Ford.

Sounders FC ALL-TIME RECORD

Points of Interest

Since entering the league in 2009, Seattle has proved they can play with anyone in MLS. Sounders FC has improved its record every season since starting the inaugural campaign, finishing at 12-7-11. The club followed that up with a 14-10-6 mark in 2010, and last year posted its best record in franchise history at 18-7-9.

HOME COOKIN'

One thing that has been a constant for the Rave Green in their early history is playing well in front of its supporters. Sounders FC faithful have played their part as well, setting club attendance records for an MLS opener (39,232 vs. Toronto) and CONCACAF Champions League match (23,433 vs. Santos) this season. Seattle is 27-11-13 all-time in MLS matches at home with a plus-32 goal differential (80-48).

ROAD WARRIORS

Sounders FC have made themselves at home while playing on the road. Last year, Seattle was 9-3-5 away from home, fourth-best winning percentage in MLS history (.676). Since entering the league in 2009, Sounders FC are second in the league with 74 road points. The Rave Green have stayed among the top five in goals on the road with 18 in 2010 (third) and 17 in 2009 (fifth). Fredy Montero is one of the main reasons for Seattle's strong road performance as 17 of his 34 goals have been scored away from home, which is 14th among active players.

GOING STREAKING

The top road team in 2011 hopes to continue the trend as Seattle currently holds the longest regular season road unbeaten streak in MLS at 5-0-1. The trip to Chicago will mark the second road trip of the season, and following the match Seattle will have just three Eastern Conference road trips remaining. Seattle went 9-3-5 away from home in 2011 and not only won more games than every other team but lost just three times (two fewer than any other MLS club). Seattle's .676 road winning percentage last season was fourth-best in MLS history as the Rave Green scored a league-best 24 goals on the road.

Scoring Goals

Since joining MLS in 2009, Sounders FC has been committed to playing an exciting, attacking style of soccer. The Rave Green led MLS with 56 goals in 2011 and are off to a fast start in 2012 with five goals in the first four games. The Seattle attack features goal scorers David Estrada, Fredy Montero and Alvaro Fernandez, creative set-up play with Mauro Rosales and Roger Levesque, and timely contributors such as Osvaldo Alonso and Brad Evans, making Sounders FC one of the most potent attacks in MLS.

Fredy Montero burst onto the MLS scene in 2009, earning MLS Newcomer of the Year honors with 12 goals and seven assists. The Colombian striker followed up his freshman performance with 10 goals and 10 assists in 2010 and recorded a career-best 12 goals with nine assists last season. Montero is the only player in the MLS to rank in the top-10 in goals and assists the past three seasons (2009, 2010, 2011).

FORWARD DAVID ESTRADA

THE MATURATION OF A GOAL SCORER

The long and winding road that led David Estrada to his breakout performance in the MLS opener began years ago as a youth soccer player in Salinas, Calif. One of the most prolific goal scorers in California high school soccer history, Estrada scored 66 goals as a senior (most in the nation), scoring 11 goals in a single game.
He went to walk-on as a freshman at UCLA where playing time was rare until a midseason injury to a teammate allowed for an opportunity. Estrada took full advantage and scored a UCLA record 12 goals as a freshman and earned Soccer America's Freshman of the Year. Despite earning Pac-10 honors all four years, Estrada has not played up top since his freshman year. In his first two years in Seattle, Estrada spent time in the midfield and also experimented at right back. Since returning to the forward position this preseason Estrada has scored eight goals with two assists.

ESTRADA NAMED MLS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Seattle Sounders FC forward David Estrada was voted Major League Soccer Player of the Week by the North American Soccer Reporters (NASR) for Week 2 of the 2012 MLS season. Estrada became the third player in club history to score a hat trick as he led Seattle to a 3-1 season-opening victory over Toronto FC on Saturday on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

The Player of the Week award is the first of Estrada's threeyear MLS career. It is the 14th time that a Seattle player has won the award.

Estrada helped Seattle to its third season-opening victory in four years with his first three goals in MLS play. He opened his account in the 17th minute when he poked in a loose ball following a scramble in the box. He added a second tally in the 51st minute and completed the hat trick just moments after Toronto's lone goal in the 63rd minute.

ESTRADA STRIKES BACK

Things are going pretty well for David Estrada this season. He is tied for fourth leading goal scorer in Major League Soccer, scoring four goals through his first four games, and added a fifth against Mexico's Santos Laguna in the CONCACAF quarterfinals. The tireless work-rate of the third-year forward is paying off as the game rewarded him with a tricky, deflected goal to open the scoring against Houston.

St. HAT TRICK'S DAY

A decisive opening night victory was highlighted by the sudden success of an unsuspecting hero as David Estrada burst onto the MLS scene in his first league start at home on St. Patrick's Day. It took the third-year forward just 17 minutes to find the netting at CenturyLink Field; the first tally of his MLS career. Estrada added two more before full time to seal the victory.

Estada Notables:

- * Four goals in MLS play in 11 appearances
- * Four goals in first two home starts. The season opener vs. Toronto FC (March 17) marked his first MLS home start (first competitive home start was March 7 against Santos Laguna)
- * Has scored four of Seattle's nine goals in all competitions this season
- * Led all players with seven total shots (one short of club record), including five on goal (ties club record) vs. Toronto (3/17)
- * Seattle's first multi-goal scorer since back-to-back Fredy Montero braces (9/24/11 and 10/1/11)

QUICK RESPONSE

Sounders FC takes every opportunity to show its true character, and it's no more obvious than after conceding a goal. Two of the home goals allowed by Seattle this season were followed by quick responses. Against Toronto FC, David Estrada scored just 69 seconds after Ryan Johnson's goal, which was less than 40 seconds after the restart. A week and a half earlier Brad Evans regained the lead just two minutes after Santos Laguna struck.

TWO-POINT CLUB

Seattle is in exclusive company as one of just three teams to average at least two points per game this season. Sounders FC has taken 10 points through the first five matches, marking the best start in club history (previously nine points through the first five matches in 2009). Sporting Kansas City (2.63) and the San Jose Earthquakes (2.28) are the only other teams to earn two points per game. Last year - Seattle's best regular season - the team averaged 1.85 points per game, finishing second overall in the MLS standings. The club is well ahead of its 2011 pace, reaching the 10-point mark in three fewer games.

STARTING WITH SCOTT

One constant of Sigi Schmid's Seattle squads has been depth at all positions, and the depth has been tested recently as starters Mauro Rosales and Adam Johansson have been unavailable due to injury. Two former USL Sounders stepped up in their absence as Roger Levesque started at right mid and Zach Scott assumed the right back position.

Scott makes a particularly notable impact when in the starting XI. Seattle is 14-4-5 all-time with Scott in the starting lineup, and 18-5-6 when he makes an appearance. Levesque does his part, as well, as Seattle is unbeaten in its last five with him in the lineup and has gone 8-1-3 in his last 12 starts, dating back to May 7, 2011.

BOUNCING BACK

Over the past three seasons, Sounders FC has shown its true character after a loss. Seattle is undefeated following its last eight losses over all competitions, going 7-0-1 in that span, dating back to July 30, 2011. So far this season, Seattle followed up a 6-1 road defeat at Santos Laguna with a 3-1 victory over Toronto FC in the MLS opener, and earned a draw at D.C. United following a 1-nil home defeat to San Jose on March 31. Overall, Sounders FC is 18-10-8 coming off a loss in all competitions.

EVANS ON THE MARK

The sure foot of midfielder Brad Evans proved true again against Houston as he stepped up and converted his first penalty kick of the season. Evans is a perfect 4-4 all-time from the spot and has emerged as one of Seattle's go-to-guys in the clutch. His four penalty kick goals over the past two seasons are tied for second most in the league. Overall, Seattle is 8-14 from the penalty spot, earning the second-most attempts in 2011 (nine), converting six (tied-third in MLS).

UNSELFISH PLAY

Sounders FC has continued to develop its identity as a possession-based, attacking team. The highest scoring team in MLS uses strong build-up play and passing to wear down opponents and advance to the offensive third. The ever-active Osvaldo Alonso leads the team in most completed passes (224) and Roger Levesque leads the club with the highest passing percentage (82.4).

IRONMAN IANNI

A focal point of one of the league's top defenses this season has been the play of center back Patrick lanni. The only defender to have started all five matches, lanni has helped Seattle shutout opponents twice and allow just one open play goal. Seattle is 25-14-12 when lanni starts, and 31-15-17 in lanni's 63 appearances.

lanni is one of three players to have played all 450 minutes this season. Goalkeeper Michael Gspurning and midfielder Osvaldo Alonso have also played every minute. Forward Fredy Montero has played all but two minutes this season.

Supporters Ranks

- * Sounders FC has sold out 54 consecutive MLS matches.
- * Sounders FC 2012 attendance average would rank seventh in EPL, fourth in Serie A, sixth in LA Liga and 13th in Bundesliga.
- * Seattle's 2012 attendance average would rank sixth in MLB.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS BROKEN

Following a club record 18 MLS wins and third consecutive trip to the postseason in 2011, Rave Green supporters do not want to miss out on seeing their team in action in 2012. Seattle set a club record for a season opener with 39,232 fans on March 17, 2012, on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field, continuing its sellout streak.

Seattle set an MLS record for attendance with an average of 30,897 during their inaugural season in 2009, only to surpass that mark in 2010 with an average of 36,173 and again in 2011 with an average of 38,498. The top regular-season crowd is 64,140 in a 2-1 win over San Jose during Kasey Keller's final home regular-season match last October.

RECAP: Sounders FC 0 vs. D.C. United 0

Zach Scott's first career goal proved to be the game-winner as Seattle Sounders FC defeated the Colorado Rapids, 1-0, Saturday afternoon on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Alex Caskey registered his first career assist and Michael Gspurning picked up his second consecutive shutout in front a sellout crowd of 38,360.

Seattle (3-1-1, 10 points) extended its unbeaten streak to two games and earned its third shutout of the 2012 MLS season.

In the 63rd minute, Caskey served a corner kick that found Scott at the near post. The 31-year old right back rose up and deflected the ball inside the far post, out of reach of Rapids keeper Matt Pickens.

It was Scott's first career goal across all competitions for Sounders FC.

Caskey recorded his first assist in his first career start. The 23year old midfielder previously played 16 minutes as a sub against San Jose on March 31.

Sounders FC earned a shutout in back-to-back games and has three clean sheets in five MLS games. The last time the club earned consecutive shutouts was August 2011 (August 13 versus Chivas USA and August 20 at FC Dallas).

Sounders FC goalkeeper Michael Gspurning made just one save, but has three shutouts in his first five MLS matches, allowing just one open-play goal so far this season.

Seattle out-shot Colorado, 18-4, including 12-1 in the second half. Seattle had 13 open-play crosses to Colorado's six, as well as a 9-2 advantage on corner kicks.

Johnson made his first start for Sounders FC. He played 24 minutes as a sub in Seattle's last match at D.C. United. His last regular season start was October 20, 2007 for Kansas City against FC Dallas.

RESERVE LEAGUE UPDATE

Seattle Sounders FC (1-2-1) earned its first victory of the 2012 MLS Reserve League with a 4-3 win against Chivas USA (1-1-0) at The Home Depot Center on April 23.

Seattle's Sammy Ochoa scored twice with Cordell Cato and Andy Rose adding two more tallies.

Chivas USA scored the game's first goal in the 9th minute. Blair Gavin and Laurent Courtois combined on the left flank and Courtois finished to take the early lead.

Seattle equalized in the 12th minute when Cato received a cross from Roger Levesque and beat keeper Tim Melia. Sounders FC took a 2-1 lead in the 31st minute when Michael Seamon found Ochoa in the six-yard box for his first goal of the game.

Chivas equalized on a penalty kick by Juan Pablo Angel in the 39th minute and jumped out to a 3-2 lead in the 59th minute on a goal by Casey Townsend with Angel providing the service.

Seattle would level the scoring again just minutes later as Servando Carrasco found Rose for a strike from outside the box.

Sounders FC regained the lead for the final time in the 70th minute when Ochoa completed his brace on an assist from Andrew Duran.

Seattle's next reserve match will be on June 1 against the Vancouver Whitecaps FC at Starfire Sports while Chivas USA will take on San Jose on May 14.

WINNER WINNER CHICKEN DINNER

Seattle has started the season strong, posting a 3-1-1 record through the first five games, and it has not gone unnoticed by the MLS and its fans.

Four Sounders have been honored by MLSsoccer.com's Team of the Week, while David Estrada was named the MLS Player of the Week for his hat trick performance in the season opener versus Toronto FC (3/17).

CHELSEA IS COMING TO SEATTLE

Sounders FC announced they will host Chelsea FC on Wednesday, July 18 on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. The match is part of the Sounders FC full 18-match season ticket package. The presenting partner for the Sounders FC international friendly match is AT&T.

Fans can guarantee seats for Chelsea by purchasing a 4-Match ticket package for $110 prior to the public on-sale of individual tickets on June 4.

Chelsea, the only English Premier League club still competing in the Champions League this season, were runners up in the League last season having been champions and FA Cup winners in 2010. The London club has many international players, from Europe, Africa and South America.

The 4-Match ticket package includes Sounders FC home matches versus Chelsea on July 18, Los Angeles Galaxy on August 5, Vancouver Whitecaps on August 18 and Portland Timbers on October 7. In anticipation of the high demand for tickets, seating at CenturyLink Field will be expanded to include the upper bowl for all four matches.

The 4-Match ticket package and full season ticket packages are available by phone at 1-877-MLS-GOAL or online at www.SoundersFC.com. Single match tickets exclusively for the Chelsea match will go on-sale Monday, June 4.

Single match tickets are now available for sale at the Downtown Pro Shop located at 410 Pike Street. There are no fees or surcharges associated with the ticket purchase. Fans who purchase tickets at the Downtown Pro Shop will receive a 10% discount on all regular-priced merchandise. The Downtown Pro Shop is open Monday-Saturday from 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. and on Sunday from 12 p.m. - 6 p.m.

APRIL FOILED: UNBEATEN IN PREVIOUS SEVEN

The month of April has treated Sounders FC quite well. Seattle has played a total of 16 regular season games in April and has earned points in all but four contests (7-4-5), including just one loss in the past 11 April outings (5-1-5). The Rave Green used April as a springboard to success in 2011, going undefeated (3-0-2) in its five April matches. The club has extended its April unbeaten streak to seven matches this season with a draw against D.C. United and a win over Colorado. The last April loss for Sounders FC was on April 25, 2010 at Toronto FC.

COACHES CORNER

HEAD COACH SIGI SCHMID

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a twotime Coach of the Year. In the 2011 season he guided Sounders FC to the playoffs for the third consecutive year, becoming the first team in league history to reach the playoffs in its first three seasons.

The Sounders FC also became the first team in 42 years to win three straight Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championships when they beat Chicago, 2-0, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title and Columbus at home, 2-1, to win the 2010 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew, to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year honors.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (160). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 160-111-84. His combined postseason win total (19) is the second-highest in MLS history. Schmid (355) has surpassed Bob Bradley's MLS record of 272 career games coached.

Schmid is the only coach in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. At UCLA Schmid claimed three more national titles in 1985, '90 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame.

THE STAFF

BRIAN SCHMETZER

Assistant Coach

Named the top assistant coach on Dec. 22, 2008. A Seattle native, he is one of the Puget Sound soccer community's most recognizable figures after playing and coaching for the region's top professional franchises since 1980.

Schmetzer was head coach of the USL-1 Sounders from 2002-08. He guided Seattle to USL-1 championships in 2005 and 2007, and U.S. Open Cup semifinal advancements in 2007 and 2008.

Schmetzer has 10 years of experience coaching and 15 years of playing experience at the professional level. He was a member of six championship teams during that span.

In addition to the two USL-1 championships, his teams also twice won the Commissioner's Cup for the best record and qualified for the playoffs six times. He was chosen USL-1 Coach of the Year in 2002 after going 23-4-1. The Sounders were league runners-up in 2004. His overall regular season record was 100-57-41.

EZRA HENDRICKSON

Assistant Coach

Announced as assistant coach on Jan. 20, 2009 after completing a 14-year professional career, including 12 seasons in Major League Soccer. Hendrickson earned his U.S. Soccer 'A' Coaching License in December of 2009

Hendrickson played parts of eight seasons for Sigi Schmid, including three in Columbus prior to his retirement. He appeared in 266 regular season MLS matches (225 starts), scored 23 goals and added 30 assists. Hendrickson was a member of three MLS Cup championship teams: 2002 Los Angeles Galaxy, 2004 D.C. United and 2008 Columbus Crew. While with the Galaxy he also won the 2000 CONCACAF Champions Cup and the 2001 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, when he was the team's MVP.

An All-American and business administration major at Drake University, Hendrickson first played professionally with New Orleans of the USISL Select League (1995-96). After earning his first international cap in 1995, he served 12 years as captain of the Saint Vincent and the Grenadines national team.

TOM DUTRA

Goalkeeper Coach

Named the goalkeeper coach on Dec. 29, 2008 after serving two seasons as keeper coach for the USL Sounders. Dutra has worked with Kasey Keller in offseason training sessions since 2002. Under Dutra's guidance in 2007 and 2008, Chris Eylander led USL-1 in saves and finished second in shutouts.

DAVID TENNEY

Fitness Coach

Named the fitness coach on January 9, 2009. He is one of Major League Soccer's most respected and highly-regarded fitness coaches following two years in Kansas City. During the 2007 and 2008 seasons Tenney served as both fitness and goalkeeper coach for Kansas City. He also holds an 'A' license from the Czech Republic F.A. and NSCAA 'Premier' Diploma.

Prior to MLS, Tenney held the same dual role as the George Mason University men's and women's teams for two seasons. He earned his B.I.S. in coaching science from George Mason in 2005 and his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania last year. While at George Mason, Tenney also served as director of coaching for the Washington Freedom youth teams from 2004-06 and as Maryland's girls director of ODP.

KURT SCHMID

Scout/Assistant Coach

Named to staff on March 12, 2009. Schmid scouts players from the youth to international level and coordinate the Match Analysis scouting system and also serves as a first team assistant. Kurt Schmid has been an assistant coach at the collegiate level, first at Saint Mary's College, then at UC Irvine.
