LAST MEETING (MLS)

- Sounders FC took the lead in the 25th minute. Eddie Johnson lost his marker on his run from the top of the box and was alone just above the 6-yard box to powerfully head home Mauro Rosales' corner kick from the right.
- The Galaxy pulled even on the final touch of the half, after Seattle defender Zach Scott picked up a yellow card for tripping Jose Villarreal just above the restraining arc. Juninho curled the ball inside the left post with the resulting free kick.
- Sounders FC finished a man down after Scott was sent off for his second yellow deep in stoppage time, but the Galaxy could not take advantage.

SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC
Seattle Sounders FC had their losing and winless streaks extended, falling 2-0 to FC Dallas on Saturday afternoon at Toyota Stadium. Sounders FC are in fourth place in the Western Conference with 51 points from 33 matches.
LAST MATCH

- FC Dallas goal took the lead in the 65th minute. A free kick was expertly delivered by second-half substitute Michel and headed home by defender Matt Hedges, who didn't give Sounders FC goalkeeper Marcus Hahnemann a chance to react.

- FCD put the game away in the 87th minute. From a frantic sequence in Seattle's 18-yard box, David Ferreira fired an attempt on goal and the shot glanced off a Sounders FC defender right to Michel, who gladly slotted the ball into the net.
- Sounders FC head coach Sigi Schmid made one change to the team that dropped a 1-0 decision to the Portland Timbers at Jeld-Wen Field. Brad Evans came into the midfield in place of the suspended Osvaldo Alonso.
- SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC (4-1-3-2): Marcus Hahnemann - DeAndre Yedlin, Patrick Ianni, Jhon Kennedy Hurtado, Leo Gonzalez - Adam Moffat (Andy Rose 80) - Mauro Rosales (Eriq Zavaleta 80), Brad Evans, Alex Caskey (David Estrada 69) - Lamar Neagle, Clint Dempsey.

TEAM NEWS

- Despite the loss to FC Dallas, with the Portland Timbers-Real Salt Lake draw later on Saturday, Sounders FC clinched a playoff berth for the fifth time in their five-year MLS history.
- It was the fourth consecutive loss for Sounders FC, the fourth-longest losing streak in MLS this season. Each of the others were set by teams that failed to make the MLS Cup Playoffs: Chivas USA (7), D.C. United (7), Toronto FC (5).
- "It rests on my shoulders that we haven't been able to come up with combinations that work for us," Sounders head coach Sigi Schmid said. "We've had some chances but haven't been able to convert those chances. Guys are trying, they're fighting and battling. The combinations on the field just haven't been able to produce the goals that we wanted and needed at this point. The guys are obviously disappointed."
- Sounders FC have conceded 12 goals over their four-game losing skein. They had allowed 29 goals total in their first 29 league games; they now rank ninth in goals allowed in the league.
- Sounders FC were also shut out for a second consecutive match, the second time this season they were blanked in back-to-back matches (also July 6-13).
- "Every team has its ups and downs," said Clint Dempsey. "You've just got to keep fighting and keep grinding. The stronger you are, the farther you'll go. Hopefully we can turn things around, get the right result in the final game and make the playoffs. It takes one game to be back on track. It takes one game to make a big mistake and fall off. It doesn't take much in this game for things to go up and down."
- Dempsey made a second consecutive start and played the full 90 minutes for Sounders FC for the first time since Aug. 31. Potential strike partners Eddie Johnson and Obafemi Martins both stayed in Seattle to deal with injuries.
- "Clint battled but is he at 100 percent with his shoulder right now? No. Then he took a knock that one time in the box. When you fall on it and the pain is there. You're aware of it," Schmid said.
- Brad Evans was able to return to the lineup for the first time after missing the last two matches while on national team duty with the USA.
- "The fight and desire is always there. It's just execution at the front and the back. ... It's just the little things," said Evans. "We give up a set piece goal, something we talked about, and it slides in past the post and that's kind of been the name of the game for us the last few weeks. Now we get a couple of days off to regroup and we've just got to fight like hell next weekend."

LA GALAXY

The LA Galaxy extended their undefeated streak to three games, playing to a scoreless draw with the San Jose Earthquakes on Sunday evening at StubHub Center. The Galaxy are third place in the Western Conference with 52 points from 33 matches.

LAST MATCH

- Galaxy goalkeeper Jaime Penedo made four saves, including diving stops on a Steven Lenhart header from a corner kick in the 27th minute and a Chris Wondolowski header in the 40th minute.
- Earthquakes goalkeeper Jon Busch was called upon to make three saves.
- Galaxy head coach Bruce Arena made five changes to the team that defeated the Montréal Impact 1-0 at StubHub Center. Jaime Penedo came in between the posts for Brian Rowe, Omar Gonzalez and Greg Cochrane started in the back four for Leonardo and Todd Dunivant, and Landon Donovan and Robbie Keane returned as the strike partnership in place of Jack McBean and Jose Villarreal.
- LA GALAXY (4-4-2): Jaime Penedo - Sean Franklin, Omar Gonzalez (Leonardo 73), Kofi Opare, Greg Cochrane - Michael Stephens (Robbie Rogers 68), Marcelo Sarvas, Juninho, Gyasi Zardes - Landon Donovan, Robbie Keane.

TEAM NEWS

- While the Galaxy saw their two-game winning streak come to an end, they did clinch a spot in the MLS Cup Playoffs for the 15th time in 19 MLS seasons.
- "We clinched a spot (in the playoffs) but we wanted more and I think we feel like we let an opportunity slip through our hands," said Landon Donovan. "I think the expectation is to make the playoffs and we had the chance to do something more, so we are disappointed by we have to move on and we have to big games this week so we have to move on."

- The Galaxy have now not allowed a goal in 308 minutes, the eighth-longest streak in MLS this season, recording three consecutive shutouts. It's been achieved with two different goalkeepers, and Jaime Penedo returned between the posts after Brian Rowe had backstopped the 1-0 win vs. Montréal.
- It was the fourth clean sheet with Penedo in goal, in his eight starts after joining the club in mid-August. As a team, the Galaxy have 13 shutouts this season.
- "He has been very good. As a team, including the Dallas game in August, it has been 14 games in official competitions, including the three CONCACAF games, and we have only let up 10 goals in our last 14 games," Arena said. "We've played well defensively, our goalkeeping has been good. Jaime was very good tonight."
- Donovan was able to return to the Galaxy starting lineup after being held out of the win vs. Montréal at midweek with an ankle problem, but ended the match still tied with Jeff Cunningham as the all-time MLS league goalscoring leader with 134 goals.
- "I told you it needs six weeks of rest, but, unfortunately, we're not going to get six weeks of rest," Donovan said. "So that's the way it goes. Just gotta deal with it."
- Greg Cochrane made his first start since June 8, coming in at left back in place of Todd Dunivant.
- "I thought [Kofi] Opare and Cochrane did well. We had a lot of trouble with (Shea) Salinas in the last 15 minutes of the game, I thought he was very effective. He was probably their most dangerous player on the night, he is a good player," Arena said. "But I thought Cochrane held up really well in that match-up versus (Cordell) Cato and toward the end of the game. And Opare did well. They are a tough team to play against, physically strong, when they make it direct they are a handful. But I give those guys a lot of credit, they played well."
- Robbie Rogers was able to make his first league appearance since July 20, coming on for the final quarter of the match in a wide midfield role.
- "It's been quite a while," Rogers said. "It felt good to be out there. It felt, I don't know, just kind of like finally. Finally I'm helping the team out. … . It's been [two] months since I played, and there's a lot of improvement I need to make."
- On Thursday, the Galaxy concluded their CONCACAF Champions League group play with a 4-0 loss to Isidro Metapan in El Salvador. The Galaxy had already clinched a berth in next year's knockout stage, but with the defeat will now face Mexican side Tijuana in the quarterfinals.
- Here's the Galaxy team: Brian Rowe; Tommy Meyer, A.J. DeLaGarza, Leonardo, Oscar Sorto (Robbie Rogers 46); Héctor Jiménez, Laurent Courtois (Charlie Rugg 70), Juninho, Rafael Garcia; Jose Villarreal, Jack McBean (Chandler Hoffman 46)

Match Preview

Playoff-bound for the fifth consecutive season, Seattle Sounders FC readies for the regular season finale against the two-time defending MLS Cup champions LA Galaxy on Sunday night. Kickoff is set for 6 p.m. PT on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

Sunday's match will be nationally broadcast on ESPN with Adrian Healey, Taylor Twellman and Alexi Lalas calling the action. The match can also be heard on 97.3 FM with Ross Fletcher and Kasey Keller on the call.

Sounders FC (15-12-6, 51 points) sits fourth in the Western Conference, just three points behind leaders Real Salt Lake. Seattle clinched its fifth consecutive postseason berth on Sunday, becoming one of just three teams to reach the playoffs every s eason since 2009.

Amidst a four-game losing streak, Sounders FC returns to CenturyLink Field where it has the opportunity to post the best home record in club history. Seattle needs one more home point to set the top mark, which would rank second in MLS this season.

A win against the LA Galaxy on Sunday would secure a top three seed for Seattle, placing the club into the Western Conference Semifinal and avoiding the Knockout Round. A loss or draw would place Seattle in the Knockout Round as the fourth or fifth seed.

Riding a three-game unbeaten streak, the LA Galaxy (15-11-7, 52 points) are currently third in the West and will visit CenturyLink Field for the first time this season. Sounders FC battled to a 1-1 road draw in the previous meeting after dropping the first meeting of the season.

Five for Five: Sounders in Playoffs, Again

Sounders FC has qualified for the MLS Cup Playoffs for five consecutive seasons, marking the second-longest postseason appearance streak to Real Salt Lake's six-straight trips. Seattle is one of three teams (LA Galaxy and Real Salt Lake) to qualify for the playoffs every season since 2009. Sounders FC is also nearing the record for the most consecutive postseason appearances by an expansion team. The Chicago Fire qualified for the playoffs each of its first six seasons (1998-2003).

MLS Cup Playoffs: Seeding Scramble

Four of the five playoff spots in the Western Conference were secured last weekend as the Portland Timbers, Real Salt Lake, LA Galaxy and Seattle Sounders FC clinched post-season berths. The Colorado Rapids are currently fifth in the West, and San Jose has not yet been mathematically eliminated. If the season ended today, Sounders FC would host the Colorado Rapids in the Knockout Round with the winner facing Salt Lake in the conference semifinal. The other semifinal would pit Portland against the LA Galaxy. In the East, New York and Kansas City are the only teams to clinch a berth in the playoffs. Five teams (Montreal, Chicago, New England, Houston and Philadelphia) are vying for the final three spots. Just three points separates third-place Montreal and seventh-place Philadelphia.

The top five teams in the West are currently separated by just five points, and with one game remaining seeding could change drastically by the end of the weekend. Sounders FC could finish in anywhere from second to fifth, depending on other results.

Job One: Securing Top Three Seed

Sounders FC will look to secure a top three seed in the Western Conference with a win against the LA Galaxy on Sunday. A top three finish would put Seattle straight into the conference semifinal, avoiding the Knockout Round. Sounders FC could still finish as high as second in the West, which would guarantee home-field advantage in the Western Conference Semifinal.

There are currently two teams (New York and Kansas City) in the East with a higher point total than Sounders FC. A win or draw against the LA Galaxy on Sunday would give Sounders FC home-field advantage in the MLS Cup over every East team besides New York and Kansas City.

Sounders FC has set the average attendance record in each of its first five seasons, and the 2013 average would rank in the top 10 in the English Premier League (6th), German Bundesliga (10th), Spanish La Liga (4th) and Italy's Serie A (3rd).

Sounders at CenturyLink Field

Seattle has been one of the top home teams in MLS this season, and will look to cap off the campaign on Sunday with another strong performance at CenturyLink Field. Sounders FC is currently tied for the fourth-highest home point total (34) in MLS, and could reach second overall with a win on Sunday. Seattle's stellar home form this season translated into the longest home unbeaten run (10-0-4) in club history and third-longest in MLS this season. Seattle has earned over two-thirds of its points at home this season, marking the largest percentage in club history. On Sunday against the Galaxy, Sounders FC has the opportunity to set the club record for most points at home, most wins at home and best home goal differential.

Coaches Corner

Head Coach Sigi Schmid

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a two-time Coach of the Year. In the 2011 season he guided Sounders FC to the playoffs for the third consecutive year, becoming the first team in league history to reach the playoffs in its first three seasons.

Sounders FC also became the first team in 42 years to win three straight Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championships when they beat Chicago, 2-0, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title and Columbus at home, 2-1, to win the 2010 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew, to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year honors.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (187). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 187-130-100. His combined postseason win total (22) is the second-highest in MLS history. With 417 games coached, Schmid leads LA Galaxy coach Bruce Arena, who is second with 309.

Schmid is the only coach in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. At UCLA Schmid claimed three more national titles in 1985, '90 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame.

LA Galaxy Injury Report (as of October 25, 2013)

ALL TO PLAY FOR: The Galaxy head into the final weekend of the season with 51 points, meaning that they can finish anywhere from 2nd to 5th in the Western Conference. A win over the Sounders on Saturday would leave the Galaxy in second place if the Timbers lose to or tie Chivas USA on Saturday while they would be in third place with a win and a Portland win or a draw and a Colorado loss or draw to Vancouver in a game that kicks off an hour before LA's game against Seattle.

An LA loss to the Sounders would give the Galaxy the fourth or fifth seed, depending on Colorado's result against Vancouver. If Colorado lose or tie that game, LA would host the Knockout Round while a Galaxy loss combined with a Colorado win would send LA to Dick's Sporting Goods Park for the Knockout Round.

On the season, LA are 10-8-5 against fellow Western Conference opponents heading into Sunday's game. The Galaxy are 7-1-4 at home against the West this season compared to 3-7-1 on the road. In five of those seven losses, LA have conceded the game-winning goal inside the final 15 minutes while FC Dallas scored the game-tying goal in the 86th minute of the 3-3 draw with LA on August 11.

ROUNDING OUT THE REGULAR SEASON: This is the second consecutive season in which the Galaxy and Sounders meet on the final day of the MLS regular season. Last year, on October 28, the Galaxy claimed a 1-0 win over Seattle thanks to a late Mike Magee goal. As a result of that win, the Galaxy finished with one more point than the Houston Dynamo, allowing them to host MLS Cup a month later.

All-time, the Galaxy are 10-5-2 in their final game of the regular season, though they are just 7-7-3 in their final regular season road game. In the four years that LA won MLS Cup, they are 2-2-0 in their final regular season game of the year, winning in 2002 and 2012 while losing in 2005 and 2011.

BACK IN THE PLAYOFFS: The Galaxy qualified for the playoffs for an MLS record 15th time thanks to last weekend's 0-0 draw with San Jose. New York have the second most postseason appearances with 14, though they have reached MLS Cup just once in that time, compared to eight times in 14 years for the Galaxy. Additionally, LA are one of three teams to qualify for the playoffs every year since 2009, joining Real Salt Lake and Seattle, though they are the only team to reach MLS Cup more than once in that time.

LA will open up the playoffs next week against either Portland or Real Salt Lake in the Western Conference Semifinals or against Colorado or Seattle in the Knockout Round. Last season, the Galaxy beat Vancouver 2-1 at home in the Knockout Round before knocking off San Jose 3-2 on aggregate in the Conference Semifinals and then beating Seattle 4-2 on aggregate in the Conference Championship. In MLS Cup 2012, LA beat Houston 4-2 to claim their fourth MLS Cup championship.

RECORD IN SIGHT FOR DONOVAN: With his two goals against Chivas USA on October 6, Landon Donovan, who missed the 1-0 win over Montreal with an ankle injury, is now a single goal away from becoming the all-time leading goal scorer in MLS. Donovan is currently tied with Jeff Cunningham with 134 regular season goals in their careers. Cunningham, who needed 360 games to score his 134 goals compared to just 301 matches for Donovan, has held the record alone since August 27, 2011 when he scored the final goal of his MLS career away to Seattle, passing Jaime Moreno in the process.

Of Donovan's 134 regular season goals, 32 were scored for the Earthquakes while 102 have come as a member of the Galaxy. He has played 10 games in his career against Seattle, scoring once and adding four assists. The goals and three of the four assists came at CenturyLink Field in LA's 4-0 win over Seattle in May 2010.

CLOSE TO ASSIST MARKS TOO: While Donovan is one goal from becoming Major League Soccer's all-time leader in goals, he is also closing in on a pair of assist records after collecting his ninth of the season against Chivas USA. Donovan now has 117 regular season assists in MLS and 88 as a member of the Galaxy. He is second to just Cobi Jones (91 assists) for the most assists in club history and now 18 assists behind Steve Ralston for the most in MLS history. Additionally, he will enter the postseason two assists shy of tying Mauricio Cienfuegos' all-time MLS postseason assist record of 14. Donovan currently has 12 assists to go along with his record 22 goals in 34 all-time postseason matches.

THE CASE FOR MVP: Fourth in goals and third in assists, Robbie Keane is striking his claim for the MLS MVP award. With 15 goals and 11 assists, Keane has factored in 26 of LA's 52 goals despite playing in just 22 of their 33 games. No other player has accounted for as many goals as Keane with Mike Magee ranking second with 20 goals and four assists, though one of those goals was assisted by Keane. Last season, his first full year in MLS, Keane has 16 goals and nine assists to factor in 25 of LA's 59 goals, or 42.4% of his team's goals compared to 50% this season. Additionally, LA are 12-3-7 with Keane on the field this season compared to 3-8-0 without him.

The MLS Player of the Month for August, Keane is looking to become the third Galaxy player to be selected as the MLS MVP, joining Carlos Ruiz in 2002 and Landon Donovan in 2009. Cobi Jones was a finalist for the award in 1998, just as Donovan was in 2008 and Edson Buddle was in 2010. Buddle, Donovan and Jones all registered career-best goal scoring seasons when they were finalists for the MVP.

FIFTEEN TIMES TWO: Keane's 90th minute goal against Chivas USA on October 6 was his 15th of the season, leaving him in fourth place in MLS behind Marco Di Vaio, Mike Magee and Camilo. This is the second straight season in which Keane scored 15 or more regular season goals, becoming just the second player in club history and the 10th in MLS history to do so. Before Keane, only Carlos Ruiz had 15 or more goals in back-to-back years, scoring 24 in 2002 and 15 in 2003 for the Galaxy.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES: In addition to being fourth in MLS with 15 goals, Keane is also third in the league with 11 assists despite missing 11 of the club's 33 regular season games. LA's top scorer with 23 goals in all competitions last year, Keane has scored 18 times for the club in 2013, adding three CCL goals to his account. Since joining LA in August 2011, Keane has appeared in 75 games in all competitions, scoring 45 times.

Keane is the only player in MLS this season with 10 or more goals and assists in league play this season and the first to do so in a Galaxy uniform in eight years. The only player in MLS to rank in the top four in both goals and assists, Keane is the first Galaxy player to achieve the feat in a single season since Landon Donovan did in 2005 when he recorded 12 goals and 10 assists for the eventual MLS Cup champions and just the fifth in to do so for LA.

Donovan is now just a single assist shy of his second 10+goal/10+ assist season in MLS. He has appeared in just 20 regular season games with the pairing of Keane and Donovan starting together just 14 times. They could become the first set of teammates since Christian Gomez and Jaime Moreno in 2006 and just the sixth in MLS history to each tally 10 or more goals and assists in the same season.

Keane and Donovan each went close to recording double-doubles in 2012 with Keane scoring 16 goals to go along with nine assists while Donovan had nine goals and 14 assists. Other than Donovan's 2005 season, the only Galaxy players with 10+ goals and assists in the same season are Mauricio Cienfuegos, Cobi Jones and Welton, who each did so in 1998 when LA scored an MLS record 85 goals.

LA GALAXY GAME NOTES – October 27, 2013

JUNINHO SUSPENDED: The Galaxy will be without Juninho for Sunday's season finale against Seattle as he will be forced to serve a mandatory one-game suspension for yellow card accumulation. Juninho was shown his sixth caution of the season in the 70th minute of last weekend's 0-0 draw with Seattle, becoming the second LA player to be booked for yellow card accumulation this season. Marcelo Sarvas missed the 0-0 draw with Portland on June 19 after being shown his fifth yellow card of the year 11 days earlier. Sarvas has a team-high eight yellow cards in the league this season while Juninho is second with six. No other LA player has been booked more than three times in MLS play.

Knowing that he was unavailable for Sunday's game, Juninho played the full 90 minutes in Thursday's 4-0 loss in the Champions League to Isidro Metapan.in the Champions League. He has played in 38 games in all competitions this season, playing in 32 of the club's 33 regular season games in addition to six games in the Champions League. Only Sarvas, with 39 games played, has appeared in more games for LA this year.

SARVAS SAFE: Marcelo Sarvas leads the Galaxy in yellow cards and also leads all of MLS in fouls committed with 77, two more than New York's Tim Cahill, but he will be eligible for selection on Sunday after not being cautioned in any of the past three games. He was shown his eighth yellow card of the year on Sept. 29 at Portland, leaving him one caution away from a one-game suspension. However, he committed just three fouls in the following three games, meaning that he is eligible to make his 33rd regular season appearance and 40th in all competitions.

Since joining the Galaxy at the start of last season, he has played in seven games in all competitions against the Sounders, tallying one assist in the 4-0 home win on May 26.

ROGERS RETURNS: Robbie Rogers made his first regular season appearance in more than three months last weekend, playing the final 22 minutes of the 0-0 draw with San Jose. He then played the entire second half of Thursday's loss to Isidro Metapan, coming on at halftime for Oscar Sorto, and creating LA's two best chances of the final 45 minutes, providing a cross for Jose Villarreal, whose 68th minute header was saved and then striking the crossbar with a left-footed shot in the closing minutes of the game.

Rogers suffered a hamstring injury in mid-July ahead of his club's 2-1 home win over Vancouver. He returned to action a month later, facing Cartagines in the Champions League, but was forced to leave that game with a recurrence of the injury. Rogers returned to the field on October 7 in MLS Reserve League play against Chivas USA

Since joining the Galaxy in late May and debuting against the Sounders on May 26, Rogers has played in 12 games in all competitions, tallying an assist in the 2-0 home win over FC Dallas on July 7.

DELAGARZA TOO: While Rogers returned last weekend, A.J. DeLaGarza returned to action on Thursday, playing the full 90 minutes at left back in the 4-0 loss to Isidro Metapan. Now in his fifth season with the club, DeLaGarza had been out since dislocating his left elbow in the opening minutes of the 2-2 draw away to D.C. United on September 14. He has now appeared in and started 33 games in all competitions, including 28 in the league. He had played in every one of the club's MLS games before his injury, playing the full 90 minutes in 23 of those.

COCHRANE STEPS IN: With Todd Dunivant suffering a right knee sprain, Greg Cochrane stepped into the starting lineup for last weekend's game against San Jose. That was his 11th MLS appearance and eighth start, all of which have come at left back. His 14 appearances in all competitions are the second most amongst Galaxy rookies with only Gyasi Zardes seeing more playing time than Cochrane, who was one of two rookies, along with Kofi Opare to start in the 0-0 draw with San Jose.

TIJUANA AWAITS: The Galaxy earned the No. 6 seed in the CONCACAF Champions League as a result of their 4-0 loss to Metapan on Thursday night. The four goals allowed tied the club record for the most goals allowed in a CCL game, matching the four conceded by the club in their first-ever Champions League game, a 4-1 home loss to Puerto Rico in the 2010-11 Preliminary Round. The loss snapped LA's nine-game unbeaten streak in the Group Stage dating back to Sept. 2011. In that stretch, LA went 8-0-1, outscoring opponents 21-5.

LA will now face Club Tijuana in the quarterfinals of the tournament with the two-leg series set to be played in March 2014. LA will host the first leg with the second being played in Tijuana.
