FC DALLAS
FC Dallas saw their winless skein reach four games, playing two men short from the first half on in a 2-0 loss to the Colorado Rapids on Sunday evening at FC Dallas Stadium. FCD is in sixth place in the Western Conference with 12 points from 10 matches.
LAST MATCH

- FC Dallas were two men shortbefore the first half was over. In the 34th minute, Daniel Hernandez sent Rapids midfielder Martin Rivero to the turf and earned a second yellow card for the game. Just minutes later, FCD was reduced to nine men when Blas Pérez was issued a straight red card for a reckless tackle on Rapids' defender Drew Moor.
- The Rapids finally broke through in the 61st minute when Jaime Castrillón got on the end of a Brian Mullan cross to head the ball past FC Dallas 'keeper Kevin Hartman.
- Martín Rivero sealed the victory with a 74th-minute goal, his first in MLS, collecting a Mullan pass in the heart of the area and turning himself around to stroke a left-footed shot into the corner of the goal.
- FC Dallas head coach Schellas Hyndman made one change to the team that played to a 1-1 result with the LA Galaxy at The Home Depot Center. Scott Sealy started in place of Brek Shea.

TEAM NEWS

- FC Dallas saw their winless run reach four games, having taken just two of a possible 12 points since their last win, April 12 vs. Montréal.
- “I was really proud about how much they gave,” said FCD head coach Schellas Hyndman. “I mean look at Jair [Benítez] attacking, defending, attacking, defending and until you really play the game you don’t realize how much space you have to cover.”
- After playing two men down for nearly a third of the match, FC Dallas finally broke with Colorado scoring two goals in a 13-minute span.
- “We tried to go two banks of four to try to frustrate them and maybe get a free kick, a breakaway or give the referee a chance to pull a card out,” Hyndman said.
- Brek Shea was held out of the match after the contest at LA, when he was substituted after 76 minutes. Shea is also dealing with turf toe.
- “He got a turf toe and he’s been working his way through it,” Hyndman said. “This week he didn’t train. With the three games coming up this week, it was really hard to not be able to count on him for the next two. So we did the safe thing and gave him a little bit of a break.”
- Kevin Hartman made his return to the lineup after missing three games with back spasms. He was credited with seven saves on the evening. “He did real well,” Hyndman said. “Kevin’s our No. 1 [goalkeeper].”
- When Hernandez and Perez were sent off, James Marcelin was given his FC Dallas debut, coming in for Scott Sealy as Hyndman tried to readjust his line. He could figure in the first XI for the Seattle match with Hernandez suspended.
- “He did fine,” Hyndman said. “It’s a difficult game and he hadn’t been playing a lot up in Portland but we needed somebody in there for Daniel.”
- Once again, Hyndman will be forced to make changes in his side – he has yet to keep the same team from one game to the next, and has run out 10 different lineups this season.
- “We won’t be putting our best team on the field because of the red cards and the injuries,” Hyndman said, “but I know I have a lot of guys in the locker room looking for an opportunity, and so they’ll be given that opportunity.”

SEATTLE SOUNDERS FC

Seattle Sounders FC ran their winning streak to four games with another shutout, this time a 1-0 defeat of Philadelphia Union on Saturday evening at CenturyLink Field. Sounders FC are in third place in the Western Conference with 19 points from 8 games.

LAST MATCH

- The game's lone goal came in the 63rd minute. Fredy Montero found Mauro Rosales on the right wing with a perfectly weighted pass from the top of the penalty area. The Argentinean took one touch and beat Union goalkeeper Zac MacMath to the far post.
- Sounders FC goalkeeper Bryan Meredith, making his first professional start, was credited with one save in the shutout.
- Sounders FC head coach Sigi Schmid made six changes to the team that defeated the LA Galaxy 2-0 at CenturyLink Field. Bryan Meredith came in at goalkeeper for Michael Gspurning; Adam Johansson, Patrick Ianni and Marc Burch came into the back four for Zach Scott, Jhon Kennedy Hurtado and Leo Gonzalez; and Andy Rose and Alex Caskey came into the team for Brad Evans and Eddie Johnson.

TEAM NEWS

- At 6-1-1, Sounders FC are off to the best start in the club’s MLS history. “Three games in a week is not an easy task, but we came out with nine points so that is something that we are very happy about,” said Sounders FC head coach Sigi Schmid.
- Sounders FC have recorded back-to-back shutouts, four in their last five games and in five games on the season. The shutout against Philadelphia came with three different players in the back four – only center back Jeff Parke kept his place from midweek.
- “We said we had three changes in the back, but to me I feel like we have seven starters,” Schmid said. “I have no problem whether it is the four guys out there today, or whether [Jhon] Kennedy [Hurtado] is out there, whether Zach [Scott] is out there, or Leo [Gonzalez] is out there, I feel like with any of those seven we don't miss a beat in back. I am not surprised by that.”
- Mauro Rosales scored his first goal of the season, in his third start after missing four matches with a knee sprain.
- “It was a great pass from Fredy [Montero]. I tried to score on my chance in the game, and tried to finish it the best way. I got lucky it was a good ball and we got the three points,” Rosales said. “ … I've been working really hard to get my fitness and get the pain out of my knee and my ankle. The last two games I've felt very good and we'll have to keep going like that."

- Fredy Montero collected his first assist of the season, setting up Rosales after opening his goalscoring account at midweek.
- "Obviously when they spend more time together they will have a better understanding. I think that everybody who has seen us the last couple of seasons knows how important Mauro [Rosales] is to our creative side of the game," Schmid said. "Eddie [Johnson] gives us a different dimension up front and Fredy, although he was unlucky again today not to get a goal, is a guy who gets around the goal, as well, and gets those opportunities. Those three, and then eventually you add [Alvaro Fernandez] to the group, those four will be fun group to watch. We just need to make sure we defend enough behind them."
- Bryan Meredith was given his first professional start in goal, after making his full debut at midweek when first-choice goalkeeper aggravated a hip injury in the first half of the LA Galaxy match.
- "It was a lot of fun – very exciting," Meredith said. "I wasn't too nervous. It was a relatively easy game for me. The back four didn't really allow much through and I don't think I saw any shots on target so I think it was a good way to start my first game."
- Schmid said Gspurning will likely miss both matches this week. He said there is an outside chance he will available to return for the May 19 contest vs. Vancouver Whitecaps FC.
- "There's an outside shot that he would be able to be back by the time we play Vancouver, or maybe that week after," Schmid said. "They feel pretty confident in terms of it's something that will take two to three weeks to ramp him up to full activity."

IRONMEN
Outside of Dallas' 4-1 loss to D.C. United on March 30, the FC Dallas defense has not allowed more than two goals per game this season, an average of 1.00 goals against per match. Even when FC Dallas went down two men for the final 54 minutes against Colorado on Wednesday, the defense and veteran goalkeeper Kevin Hartman limited the Rapids to two goals. A big reason for the success of defense rests on the shoulders of two players. Outside back Zach Loyd and center back Ugo Ihemelu have played every minute of every match this season (10 GP, 900 MP).

MLS RESERVE LEAGUE GOLDEN BOOT
FC Dallas Home Grown player, Ruben Luna led the MLS Reserve League in goals with 10 during the 2011 season. Leading the league in goals is nothing new for the 20-year-old striker. Luna recorded 38 goals in 27 games for the FC Dallas Academy U16 team in 2009. That total gave him the most goals in the U16 U.S. Development Academy League that season. Luna also found the back of the net twice in a CONCACAF Champions League match against Tauro FC on Sept. 28 to lead FC Dallas in goals scored during the competition. Luna picked up his first two goals of the 2011 MLS Reserve League on May 1 as FC Dallas Reserves drew Sporting Kansas City Reserves 2-2.

BEST IN MLS HISTORY
In 2010, FCD goalkeeper Kevin Hartman (0.62) broke the all-time MLS record for goals-against-average (GAA) in a season. He became the first MLS goalkeeper to eclipse the 1,300 save mark on April 17, 2011. He also became the first MLS goalkeeper to reach 100 shutouts on June 4, 2011. On April 5 Hartman became the first player in MLS to pass the 35,000 minutes played mark. Despite playing in only seven matches this season, Hartman ranks seventh in the league in saves (30), six behind RSL's Nick Rimando (11GP).

THE MOST FOULED TEAM IN THE LEAGUE
FC Dallas has suffered 140 fouls this season, seven more than the second place team in the league, Vancouver (133).

FC DALLAS' MILESTONE ASSIST
Fabian Castillo's game-winning assist to Brek Shea on April 14 was the 800th assist in FCD history. Dallas is now one of only three franchises in MLS history to have 800 assists (LA 826, DC 858). The Columbus Crew currently ranks fourth with 776.

FC DALLAS ATTENDANCE CONTINUES TO RISE
FC Dallas attendance went up by 19 percent from 2010 to 2011. In its first six home matches of 2012, Dallas has drawn an average of 13,681 fans, an increase of six percent from the 2011 season.

Year	Home Average	Increase
2010	10,815	--
2011	12,861	19%
2012	13,681	6%

SEALY MAKES HIS DEBUT
A veteran of seven MLS seasons that has found the back of the net 31 times, Scott Sealy made his FC Dallas debut on April 21. The hard-working native of Trinidad and Tobago played 18 minutes against Vancouver in relief of Bruno Guarda. Having fully recovered from an injury he picked up in preseason, Sealy now gives FCD another option in the attacking midfield role.

SUMMER TIME
FC Dallas is looking forward to this summer. From May to August in 2010 and 2011, Dallas has a combined record of 20-5-13.

FIRST HALF DEFENSE
FC Dallas has only allowed three goals in the first half of games this season. That total is the fourth-best average in MLS.

Team	First half goals against
Seattle	1
Philadelphia	1
Vancouver	2
Dallas	3
Chivas USA	3
Salt Lake	3

THE BLAS EFFECT
Through his first eight games in MLS, Blas Perez has three goals and three assists. He has also been involved in nine of Dallas' 10 goals this season. Although he was not credited with a goal or an assist, Perez drew three set piece opportunities that were converted by Villar (March 25), Ihemelu (April 5) and Shea (April 28).

HOMEGROWN TALENT
FC Dallas' investment in Homegrown talent is beginning to pay off. Three of FC Dallas' six Homegrown players made the top 18 and traveled to Vancouver on April 21 (Jonathan Top, Victor Ulloa and Ruben Luna). The club's first Homegrown player, Bryan Leyva made his first MLS start on March 25 against Kansas City. Top made his MLS debut against Salt Lake on April 25.

GEORGE JOHN IS BACK
George John, who recorded career highs in goals (3), assists (1), minutes played (2,781) and shots (18) during the 2011 regular season, returned to Dallas on March 2 following a two-month loan with English Championship League side West Ham United. One of MLS's top center backs, John's return gives FC Dallas four rock-solid options in central defense (Ihemelu, Pertuz, Hedges and John).

VILLAR'S A DAD
FC Dallas' Ricardo Villar scored his first goal in an FC Dallas uniform on March 11 in a 2-1 victory over New York. Villar celebrated by pretending to rock a baby to sleep, a tribute to his son Lucas, who was born on February 1, 2012. Villar picked up his second goal of the season via free kick in a 2-1 loss to Kansas City on March 25.

OFFSEASON ADDITIONS
FCD loaded up on defenders and forwards during the offseason. The club brought in six new players. Forwards Blas Perez and Scott Sealy will look to supplement the offense while defenders Matt Hedges, Carlos Rodriguez, Alex Lee and Hernan Pertuz will look to improve on Dallas' 2011 goals against of 1.15.

BREK RISING
FC Dallas midfielder Brek Shea spent the offseason training with Arsenal FC in Europe. He also logged substantial minutes with the U.S. Under-23 National Team. On top of all that, Shea was called into the full U.S. Men's National Team to assist in a historic 1-0 victory over Italy in Stadio Luigi Ferraris in Genoa on Feb. 29. One of Shea's proudest achievements is the fact that he has been able to improve his stats each year he has been in the league.

JACKSON RECALLED
FC Dallas recalled Jackson from his loan to Brazilian first division side Cruzeiro on April 12. A native of São Paulo, Brazil, Jackson first joined FC Dallas from São Paulo FC on Aug. 13, 2010. Match Preview

All-time Head-to-Head: Sounders FC lead 2-1-3

Sounders FC will look to continue its best start in franchise history as the Rave Green travel to Frisco, Texas, to take on FC Dallas on Wednesday evening at FC Dallas Stadium. It will be Seattle's third road match (1-0-1) out of the first nine contests, and the fourth against an Eastern Conference opponent.

Sounders FC has started the busiest stretch in club history by earning three victories in eight days, extending its unbeaten run to five matches (4-0-1).

Sounders FC holds a 2-1-3 all-time mark against Dallas after losing at home, then winning on the road in 2011. Seattle dropped the home leg, 1-0, on May 25, but won 1-0 thanks to a Mauro Rosales goal on August 20. Sounders FC also beat Dallas in the 2011 U.S. Open Cup Semifinal on August 30. None of Seattle's games with Dallas have been decided by more than one goal, and the Rave Green own a slight 7-6 goal advantage. Fredy Montero leads all players in the series with six points (two goals, two assists)

The Rave Green have averaged 2.375 points per match, the best in MLS, just ahead of Sporting Kansas City (2.33) and San Jose Earthquakes (2.20). Despite playing just eight matches, Sounders FC sits third in the West and fourth overall with 19 points.

Getting Defensive

Austrian keeper Michael Gspurning has been strong in Seattle's nets this season. He has allowed just three goals (fewest in MLS) and has the league's best goals against average (0.46). Gspurning held a clean sheet for 335 minutes until Marco Pappa's 89th minute Olimpico on April 28, and held off a late surge by Chicago in stoppage time. He has allowed just one goal from the run of play, and Ryan Johnson's strike won Goal of the Week. Seattle has allowed three goals through the first eight games, which is the best start in club history.

2.	Jimmy Nielsen	Sporting KC	0.56
3.	Joe Cannon	Vancouver	0.83
4.	Chris Seitz	FC Dallas	1.00

Standout defensive players have helped Seattle remain one of the league's stingiest defenses. Midfielder Osvaldo Alonso has played every minute this season, and goalkeeper Michael Gspurning is tied-fourth in MLS with three shutouts. His 335-minute shutout streak is fourth longest this season and his saves percentage (84.2) is second among keepers. Seattle has held opponents to just 76 total shots, good for second in MLS.

Sounders FC Hit The Century Mark

With a win in its 100th MLS regular season match, Sounders FC has continued to cement itself atop the landscape of soccer in America. Seattle was 48-25-27 (171 points) through its first 100 games, which is the second-most points of any expansion club through its first 100 matches (Chicago Fire - 178 points). The Rave Green have continued to set the standard for MLS expansion clubs, becoming the first expansion side to qualify for the playoffs in its first three seasons as well as winning the U.S. Open Cup championship all three years. Seattle has allowed just 104 goals, the second-fewest in a club's first 100 games. Seattle has scored 141 goals since 2009, third-most in MLS.

On the Mend: Several Players Nearing Full Strength

Sounders FC is steadily returning to full health as Mauro Rosales (knee sprain) and Adam Johansson (hamstring strain) have both started multiple games since returning. Alvaro Fernandez has continued to recover from a quad strain and midfielder Steve Zakuani has been in full training. Goalkeeper Michael Gspurning is recovering from a right hip injury, but goalkeeper Andrew Weber made an appearance on the 18-man roster Saturday after sitting out with an ankle injury. Rookie defender Andrew Duran is fully recovered from knee surgery.

Seattle has used a different lineup in all seven contests this season, and head coach Sigi Schmid has used a league-high 21 starters. Last season, Seattle started 23 different players in MLS play and 31 players in all competitions. The only player who did not start a match last season was backup keeper Josh Ford.

Scoring Goals

Since joining MLS in 2009, Sounders FC has been committed to playing an exciting, attacking style of soccer. The Rave Green led MLS with 56 goals in 2011 and are off to a fast start in 2012 with 10 goals in the first seven games. The Seattle attack features goal scorers David Estrada, Fredy Montero and Eddie Johnson, creative set-up play with Mauro Rosales and Alvaro Fernandez, and timely contributors such as Osvaldo Alonso and Brad Evans, making Sounders FC one of the most potent attacks in MLS.

Fredy Montero burst onto the MLS scene in 2009, earning MLS Newcomer of the Year honors with 12 goals and seven assists. The Colombian striker followed up his freshman performance with 10 goals and 10 assists in 2010 and recorded a career-best 12 goals with nine assists last season. Montero is the only player in the MLS to rank in the top-10 in goals and assists the past three seasons (2009, 2010, 2011).

Pushing Forward

Goals Up Front

Seattle strikers have started quickly this season, amassing seven of the team's 11 goals, plus an own goal created by forward David Estrada's opportunistic shot in Chicago. The production from the forward pairing is welcomed by Sounders FC as 38 of the team's 56 goals in 2011 were scored by midfielders and defenders. Four of Seattle's five game-winners have been scored by forwards as the club is currently sixth in scoring with 1.38 goals per match.

Eddie and Fredy

Sounders FC caught the attention of Major League Soccer as the club made perhaps the biggest offseason acquisition in U.S. International Eddie Johnson. Seattle brought in the 28-year-old striker to pair with one of the league's most potent goal scorers in Fredy Montero. The Eddie and Fredy experiment is beginning to take form, showing Seattle supporters and opposing teams alike a dangerous combination of speed, skill and perseverance up top.

Johnson and Montero both scored in Seattle's 2-0 victory over the LA Galaxy on Wednesday. Johnson scored a powerful header in the first-half and Montero followed up with a 35-yard golazo just eight minutes later. In the previous win at Chicago, Montero's threatening free kick forced an uncomfortable save from the keeper, allowing Johnson to tap in the game-winner. Johnson is now second in MLS with two game-winning goals, and the past three goals scored have come from the Eddie and Fredy combination.

Estrada Named MLS Player of the Week

Seattle Sounders FC forward David Estrada was voted Major League Soccer Player of the Week by the North American Soccer Reporters (NASR) for Week 2 of the 2012 MLS season. Estrada became the third player in club history to score a hat trick as he led Seattle to a 3-1 season-opening victory over Toronto FC on Saturday on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

The Player of the Week award is the first of Estrada's three-year MLS career. It is the 14th time that a Seattle player has won the award.

Estrada helped Seattle to its third season-opening victory in four years with his first three goals in MLS play. He opened his account in the 17th minute when he poked in a loose ball following a scramble in the box. He added a second tally in the 51st minute and completed the hat trick just moments after Toronto's lone goal in the 63rd minute.

St. Hat Trick's Day

A decisive opening night victory was highlighted by the sudden success of an unsuspecting hero as David Estrada burst onto the MLS scene in his first league start at home on St. Patrick's Day. It took the third-year forward just 17 minutes to find the netting at CenturyLink Field; the first tally of his MLS career. Estrada added two more before full time to seal the victory.

Estrada Notables:

* Four goals in MLS play, including two game-winners
* Four goals in first two home starts. The season opener vs. Toronto FC (March 17) marked his first MLS home start (first competitive home start was March 7 against Santos Laguna)
* Has scored four of Seattle's 13 goals in all competitions this season
* Led all players with seven total shots (one short of club record), including five on goal (ties club record) vs. Toronto (3/17)
* Seattle's first multi-goal scorer since back-to-back Fredy Montero braces (9/24/11 and 10/1/11)

Estrada Strikes Back

Things are going pretty well for David Estrada this season. He is tied for fifth in goals scored in Major League Soccer, scoring four goals through his first four games, and added a fifth against Mexico's Santos Laguna in the CONCACAF quarterfinals. The tireless work-rate of the third-year forward is paying off as the game rewarded him with a tricky, deflected goal to open the scoring against Houston as well as a delfected own goal against Chicago.

Two-Point Club

Seattle leads the league in ponts per match (2.38), and is one of just four teams to average over two points per match. Sounders FC has taken 19 points through the first eight matches, marking the best start in club history (previously 14 points through the first eight matches in 2009). Sporting Kansas City (2.33), the San Jose Earthquakes (2.20), and Real Salt Lake (2.00) are the only other teams to earn two points per match. Last year - Seattle's best regular season - the team averaged 1.85 points per match, finishing second overall in the MLS standings. The club is well ahead of its 2011 pace, reaching the 19-point mark in five fewer games.

Evans on the Mark

The sure foot of midfielder Brad Evans proved true again against Houston as he stepped up and converted his first penalty kick of the season. Evans is a perfect 4-4 all-time from the spot and has emerged as one of Seattle's go-to-guys in the clutch. His four penalty kick goals over the past two seasons are tied for second most in the league. Overall, Seattle is 8-14 from the penalty spot, earning the second-most attempts in 2011 (nine), converting six (tied-third in MLS).

Starting with Scott

One constant of Sigi Schmid's Seattle squads has been depth at all positions, and the depth has been tested recently as several starters have been unavailable due to injury. Two former USL Sounders stepped up in their absence as Roger Levesque started at right mid and Zach Scott assumed the right back position.

Scott makes a particularly notable impact when in the starting XI. Seattle is 15-4-5 all-time with Scott in the starting lineup, and 19-5-6 when he makes an appearance. Levesque does his part, as well, as Seattle is unbeaten in its last five with him in the lineup and has gone 8-1-3 in his last 12 starts, dating back to May 7, 2011.

Unselfish Play

Sounders FC has continued to develop its identity as a possession-based, attacking team. The highest scoring team in MLS uses strong build-up play and passing to wear down opponents and advance to the offensive third. The ever-active Osvaldo Alonso leads the team in most completed passes (375) and highest passing percentage (80.3).

Bouncing Back

Over the past three seasons, Sounders FC has shown its true character after a loss. Seattle is undefeated following its last eight losses over all competitions, going 7-0-1 in that span, dating back to July 30, 2011. So far this season, Seattle followed up a 6-1 road defeat at Santos Laguna with a 3-1 victory over Toronto FC in the MLS opener, and earned a draw at D.C. United following a 1-nil home defeat to San Jose on March 31. Overall, Sounders FC is 18-10-8 coming off a loss in all competitions.

EJ Strikes: Johnson's First a Game-Winner

Eddie Johnson opened his Sounders FC account last Saturday with the second-half winner versus Chicago. The U.S. international tapped in the rebound following a dangerous free kick from Fredy Montero just minutes after he hit the post on a header. With the goal, Johnson has now scored seven goals in 13 career matches against the Fire. He has 43 goals in MLS play, the most of any Sounders FC player, with his last league goal coming over four years ago (September 15, 2007) while he was playing for Kansas City.

Supporters Ranks

* Sounders FC has sold out 56 consecutive MLS matches.
* Sounders FC 2012 attendance average would rank seventh in EPL, fourth in Serie A, sixth in LA Liga and 13th in Bundesliga.
* Seattle's 2012 attendance average would rank sixth in MLB.

Attendance Records Broken

Following a club record 18 MLS wins and third consecutive trip to the postseason in 2011, Rave Green supporters do not want to miss out on seeing their team in action in 2012. Seattle set a club record for a season opener with 39,232 fans on March 17, 2012, on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field, continuing its sellout streak.

Seattle set an MLS record for attendance with an average of 30,897 during their inaugural season in 2009, only to surpass that mark in 2010 with an average of 36,173 and again in 2011 with an average of 38,498. The top regular-season crowd is 64,140 in a 2-1 win over San Jose during Kasey Keller's final home regular-season match last October.

Recap: Sounders FC 2 vs. LA Galaxy 0

Eddie Johnson scored a goal in his second straight game and Fredy Montero scored his first of the season as Sounders FC defeated the LA Galaxy, 2-0, Wednesday night on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Mauro Rosales picked up his first assist of the season as Seattle won their third straight in front of a sellout crowd of 39,002.

Johnson put Seattle on the board in the 40th minute after an accurate Rosales cross from 25-yards out. Johnson rose up in traffic and headed the ball into the left side of the net, just out of the reach of LA keeper Bill Gaudette. Johnson is now tied-second in MLS with two game-winning goals.

The 28-year-old striker has now scored goals in consecutive games for the first time since 2007, when he scored in three straight from August 29-September 15.

It was the first assist of the season for Rosales, who missed four games with a right knee sprain. The 2011 MLS Newcomer of the Year had a Sounders-record 13 assists last season.

Minutes into the second half, Monteroadded to the lead when he rocketed a shot from 35 yards out that steadily rose and finished into the top left corner of the net. His first goal of the season comes in his seventh game, just as it did in 2011.

The 24-year-old Colombian is the club's all-timeleader with 35 goals, and leads the team this year with 35 shots and 11 shots on goal.

Sounders FC improved 2-3-2 all-time against the Galaxy in MLS play. Tonight's win was the first MLS win against Los Angeles since August 15, 2009.

Sounders FC goalkeeper Bryan Meredith made his MLS debut when he came on at half for Michael Gspurning after suffering a right hip injury. Meredith played in one CONCACAF Champions League game last year, a 2-1 loss at home to Monterrey on October 18.

Reserve League Update

Seattle Sounders FC (1-2-1) earned its first victory of the 2012 MLS Reserve League with a 4-3 win against Chivas USA (1-1-0) at The Home Depot Center on April 23.

Seattle's Sammy Ochoa scored twice with Cordell Cato and Andy Rose adding two more tallies.

Chivas USA scored the game's first goal in the 9th minute. Blair Gavin and Laurent Courtois combined on the left flank and Courtois finished to take the early lead.

Seattle equalized in the 12th minute when Cato received a cross from Roger Levesque and beat keeper Tim Melia. Sounders FC took a 2-1 lead in the 31st minute when Michael Seamon found Ochoa in the six-yard box for his first goal of the game.

Chivas equalized on a penalty kick by Juan Pablo Angel in the 39th minute and jumped out to a 3-2 lead in the 59th minute on a goal by Casey Townsend with Angel providing the service.

Seattle would level the scoring again just minutes later as Servando Carrasco found Rose for a strike from outside the box.

Sounders FC regained the lead for the final time in the 70th minute when Ochoa completed his brace on an assist from Andrew Duran.

Seattle's next reserve match will be on June 1 against the Vancouver Whitecaps FC at Starfire Sports while Chivas USA will take on San Jose on May 14.

May Opportunities

Sounders FC plays seven MLS matches in May, the most league matches in a single month in club history. Add last Saturday's match at Chicago and an Open Cup fixture at the end of the month and Seattle will play nine games in a 32-day stretch, the second such stretch in club history (7-1-1 in August 2011). The congested May schedule features home matches against West foes L.A. Galaxy and Real Salt Lake as well as the first Cascadia derby match of the season at Vancouver. It is also just the third time that Seattle will play eight games in a single month (August 2011 and September 2010).

Coaches Corner

Head Coach Sigi Schmid

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a two-time Coach of the Year. In the 2011 season he guided Sounders FC to the playoffs for the third consecutive year, becoming the first team in league history to reach the playoffs in its first three seasons.

The Sounders FC also became the first team in 42 years to win three straight Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championships when they beat Chicago, 2-0, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title and Columbus at home, 2-1, to win the 2010 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew, to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year honors.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (163). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 163-111-84. His combined postseason win total (19) is the second-highest in MLS history. Schmid (358) has surpassed Bob Bradley's MLS record of 272 career games coached.

Schmid is the only coach in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. At UCLA Schmid claimed three more national titles in 1985, '90 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame.

Named the top assistant coach on Dec. 22, 2008. A Seattle native, he is one of the Puget Sound soccer community's most recognizable figures after playing and coaching for the region's top professional franchises since 1980.

Schmetzer was head coach of the USL-1 Sounders from 2002-08. He guided Seattle to USL-1 championships in 2005 and 2007, and U.S. Open Cup semifinal advancements in 2007 and 2008.

Schmetzer has 10 years of experience coaching and 15 years of playing experience at the professional level. He was a member of six championship teams during that span.

In addition to the two USL-1 championships, his teams also twice won the Commissioner's Cup for the best record and qualified for the playoffs six times. He was chosen USL-1 Coach of the Year in 2002 after going 23-4-1. The Sounders were league runners-up in 2004. His overall regular season record was 100-57-41.
