Match Preview

MLS Regular Season Head-to-Head: Seattle Trails 0-1-0

Seattle Sounders FC kicks off its fifth season in Major League Soccer on Saturday night against the Montreal Impact. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. PT on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field.

Saturday's match against the Impact will be broadcast locally on KING-5 with Ross Fletcher and Kasey Keller on the call. Pregame coverage begins at 7 p.m. The game can also be heard on 97.3 KIRO FM and in Spanish on La Gran D 99.3 FM.

Sounders FC returned home last Sunday from a 13-day stay in Tucson, Ariz. as Desert Diamond Cup champions, winning all four matches while outscoring opponents 7-1. Alex Caskey and Mario Martinez led the team with two goals in the four-game tournament, and the goalkeeper tandem of Michael Gspurning and Marcus Hahnemann did not allow a goal in 437 minutes of preseason play.

Montreal visits Seattle for the first time after joining the league last season. Sounders FC dropped the previous meeting, 4-1 at Stade Saputo last June. It will be the first MLS match for Montreal head coach Marco Schallibaum following 15 years playing and 16 years coaching in Switzerland.

The match against Montreal will be the first of six in the month of March for Seattle. Just four days after the opener, Sounders FC will visit Monterrey, Mexico, for the first leg of the CONCACAF Champions League quarterfinal series versus Tigres. The series will conclude in Seattle on March 12.

Sounders FC vs. Montreal Impact | Saturday, March 2, 2013 - 7:30 p.m. PT

This Week vs. Montreal Impact

Series Notes

Saturday's match will mark the second MLS meeting between the two teams, but Seattle and Montreal have plenty of history. In the lone league match, Sounders FC fell to the Impact, 4-1 at Stade Saputo on June 16, 2012. Eddie Johnson scored Seattle's only goal as Patrice Bernier recorded three assists and current Sounders FC midfielder Lamar Neagle scored the fourth and final goal.

The Sounders faced the Impact a number of times at the USL and NASL levels, as well. Most notably, Seattle lost to Montreal, 2-0, on September 18, 2004 in the USL final. A year later, the Sounders advanced past Montreal in a two-leg semifinal series. The two sides drew, 2-2, in the first leg in Seattle (September 23, 2005) and won, 2-1, in the second leg in Montreal two days later on a 90th minute game-winner from Roger Levesque. The Sounders went on to win the USL championships that year, beating Richmond on penalties. The last time the Sounders were represented in the USL was September 28, 2008 in a 3-1 loss at Montreal.

About Montreal

The Impact finished its inaugural season seventh in the East and 12th overall (12-16-6, 42 points). Ten of the team's 12 wins last year came at home as the Impact went just 2-12-3 on the road with a -18 goal differential. Montreal struggled to start its first MLS season, going 0-4-1 through the first five matches. The Canadian club should be somewhat used to the large crowd at CenturyLink Field, finishing third in average attendance at 22,772 in 2012.

Impact Notables

Head coach Marco Schallibaum enters his first season in MLS and will look to guide the Impact to its first MLS Cup Playoffs appearance. Italian internationals Alessandro Nesta and Marco Di Vaio return for their first full season with the club. Midfielder Patrice Bernier led the attack with nine goals and eight assists last season, and Felipe Martins added 10 assists with four goals. The top pick in the 2012 MLS SuperDraft, forward Andrew Wenger, rejoins the team along with veteran midfielder Davy Arnaud. Former Sounders FC midfielder Sanna Nyassi enters his second season in Montreal. Goalkeeper Troy Perkins joined the team in a mid-season trade with the Portland Timbers and allowed just eight goals in nine games (0.89 goals against average).

Last Time at Montreal

Patrice Bernier had three assists as the Impact took down Sounders FC, 4-1, in the Rave Green's first road loss of 2012. Eddie Johnson scored the lone goal for Seattle when he chipped the keeper on a ball from Fredy Montero. Lamar Neagle scored his first goal of the season for Montreal.

Sounders FC vs. Montreal Impact | Saturday, March 2, 2013 - 7:30 p.m. PT

March to Soccer 2013

The Boys are Back

Sounders FC enters season five as one of the league's top teams, consistently finishing the regular season strong and qualifying for the MLS Cup Playoffs the past four years - just one of three teams to do so. Seattle is set to play a 34-game regular-season schedule, facing each Western Conference side three times with just a single meeting against East foes. Sounders FC will play at least 37 matches across all competitions this year, including the two-leg CONCACAF Champions League series against Tigres and the opening round of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. The Seattle side could play as many as 51 matches in the 2013 calendar year.

March On

The opening month of the season is packed with matches - a welcomed sight by Seattle supporters. The club will play six games over the next four weeks, beginning with the opener on Saturday night and concluding with the March 30 away game at Real Salt Lake. Three games will be played at CenturyLink Field as the team will travel to Monterrey (Mexico), Santa Clara (Calif.), and Sandy (Utah), for road contests. Not only does the march towards the Supporters' Shield and MLS Cup begin this month, but the club will also look to advance past Tigres in the CONCACAF Champions League and start strong in the Cascadia Cup with the opening match against the Portland Timbers on March 16.

Starting in Seattle

For the fifth straight year, Sounders FC will open its regular season campaign at home with Saturday's matchup against the Montreal Impact. Seattle is 3-1 in season openers with an 8-2 goals advantage. Fredy Montero started it off in the inaugural match in 2009 with two goals. Brad Evans has twice scored on opening night and forward David Estrada became the third player in league history to record a hat trick on opening day when he scored three on Toronto FC last year.

Champions of the Desert

Sounders FC wrapped up the preseason as champions of the 2013 FC Tucson Desert Diamond Cup. Seattle defeated New England, New York and Salt Lake in group play, and ousted Real Salt Lake in the final, outscoring its opponents 7-1.

The tournament began with a 2-nil win over the Revs as Seattle's US National Team players each scored, beginning with Brad Evans first-half penalty followed by Eddie Johnson's sensational strike just before the halftime whistle. Three days later, Mario Martinez's long-range volley proved the game-winner in a 2-1 victory over Real Salt Lake. Martinez scored his second goal of the tournament the following week in a 2-0 win in the snow over the Red Bulls, and the club concluded the tournament with a 1-0 win over RSL in the final. Alex Caskey scored the game-winner in the championship match - his second of the tournament - as Seattle raised the third annual Desert Diamond Cup.

New Sounders

The 2012 offseason saw a number of team staples like Fredy Montero and Jeff Parke depart, but the front office acted promptly filled those gaps with a number of saavy off-season signings, adding a lethal mixture of veteran experience and youthful energy to the roster.

*Sounders FC signed their first Homegrown player when DeAndre Yedlin inked his signature on Januray 11 after two stellar seasons at Akron. The speedy right back was a two-time All-MAC selection after playing for Sounders FC Academy.

*Just a week later, the club picked up two quality players in the 2013 MLS SuperDraft, trading up to select Eriq Zavaleta, fresh off a College Cup at Indiana, with the 10th pick. A member of the U.S. U20 National Team pool, Zavalet netted 18 goals last season for the Hoosiers, but has significant experience as a center back at the international level. The Rave green then selected speedy left back Dylan Remick out of Brown in the second round. The three-time All-Ivy League selection was officially signed on February 22.

*Sounders FC got one of their own back in late January. A year after being traded to Montreal as part of the Eddie Johnson trade, Lamar Neagle returned to Seattle when the club acquired the midfielder from the Impact for an international roster spot. The Federal Way-native has seven goals and four assists in 46 career appearances, and is one of four Sounders FC players to score a hat trick.

*Seattle made big waves when they acquired nine-year MLS veteran Shalrie Joseph from Chivas USA as a designated player. The 34-year-old Grenadian is a four-time MLS Best XI selection and eight-time MLS All-Star who has played in three MLS Cups, easily making him the most experienced player within MLS ever to appear on a Sounders FC roster.

*After a stellar trial performance throughout preseason camp, Sounders FC signed 33-year old center back Djimi Traore on February 23. The English and French Premier League veteran won a UEFA Champions League title in 2005 with Liverpool, the first Sounders FC plater to do so, adding more experience to Seattle's most seasoned roster in their brief history.

International Players In Top Form

One advantage Sounders FC has enjoyed in the presason is the early form of Eddie Johnson, Brad Evans, Mario Martinez, and Adam Johansson. All four were invited to their respective countries' January national team camps, getting valuable experience in both friendlies and World Cup qualifiers.

Johnson and Evans both participated in the entirety of Jurgen Klinsmann's U.S. Camp, with both traveling for a Canada friendly and a World Cup qualifier against Honduras. Martinez, a regular on the dangerous Honduran squad, helped the Los Catrachos to a 2-1 win over the U.S. in San Pedro Sula. Johansson, a veteran member of Sweden's squad, helped Sweden to the 2013 King's Cup title and appeared in a friednly against Argentina.

Johnson and Martinez showed off their scoring form in the preseason games. Johnson netted a beautiful 45th minute goal against the New England Revolution when he took a long pass up the right side, cut in and bent a left-footed strike inside the far post. Martinez was one of two players to score multiple goals in the preseason (Alex Caskey). First, he haunted Real Salt Lake when he rocketed a half-volley through the defense and past Nick Rimando, much reminiscent of his game-winner in the Western Conference Semifinals last fall. Then, he scored another golazo against New York, smashing a volley from the top of the box amidst the snow in Tucson.

Heavy D

Sounders FC, owners of the second best goals against average (0.97) a season ago, look to build on that form in 2013. In six total preseason games, the Rave Green allowed two goals total, including just one in the Desert Diamond Cup. In the DDC final, Seattle held a mainly first-team RSL scoreless with a back line that included three rookies in front of Marcus Hahnemann. Both Michael Gspurning and Hahnemann held opposing offenses scoreless throughout the preseason.

2012-13 CONCACAF Champions League

CONCACAF Champions League

For the second straight season, Sounders FC will represent Major League Soccer in the CONCACAF Champions League quarterfinals. Seattle finished the Group Stage as one of three perfect teams with four wins, securing the third overall seed. Seattle will face Tigres of the Mexican Primera Division in the knockout round.

Sounders FC began the tournament with a 3-1 home win over Trinidad's Caledonia AIA followed by the same result in the return leg in Couva, Trinidad. Seattle sealed advancement with wins over CD Marathon of Honduras in the final two Group Stage matches. Sounders FC scored three goals in all four games, and Sammy Ochoa led the club with four goals.

It will be the second time that Seattle has faced a Mexican side in the quarterfinals, having lost to Santos Laguna in the 2011-12 tournament. Sounders FC has played a Mexican team six times in the Champions League, winning twice and losing four times with six goals scored, including a historic 1-0 win at Monterrey in 2011.

Coaches Corner

Head Coach Sigi Schmid

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a two-time Coach of the Year. In the 2011 season he guided Sounders FC to the playoffs for the third consecutive year, becoming the first team in league history to reach the playoffs in its first three seasons.

The Sounders FC also became the first team in 42 years to win three straight Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Championships when they beat Chicago, 2-0, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at CenturyLink Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title and Columbus at home, 2-1, to win the 2010 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew, to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year honors.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (172). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 172-117-94. His combined postseason win total (20) is the second-highest in MLS history. Schmid (383) leads LA Galaxy coach Bruce Arena, who is second with 275 games coached.

Schmid is the only coach in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. At UCLA Schmid claimed three more national titles in 1985, '90 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame.
